FORTY-EIGHT DEATHS FROM STORM IN EUROPE

SUMAS RECLAMATION AREA MAY DEVELOP AS REVENUE MAKER

Premier Tolmie Takes Optimistic View of Situation at Annual Meeting of B.C. Conservative Association—Praises Colleagues as Efficient Administrators of Departments

Data Is Still Being Gathered on Solution of P.G.E. Railway Problem

VANCOUVER, Nov. 17.—Plans for the settlement of the lands in the Sumas reclamation district will be made public within a month, Premier S. F. Tolmie told delegates to the annual meeting of the Provincial Conservative Association this afternoon. Within a month we hope to offer a plan for the settlement of the Sumas lands," said Hon. Dr. Tolmie, explaining that the high cost of the land was the chief obstacle which his Government must overcome. "By intelligent handling we believe we can make these lands revenue-producing to the province."

The Premier spoke of the Soldier Settlement lands. The Government, he said, was taking expert advice on its problem and hoped to be able to offer a solution. This, he added, as in keeping with the general policy to make the lands of the province attractive to settlers and bring about agricultural development in lands now unused.

LAND SETTLEMENT
By the end of the present year, he said, the Premier, his Government hoped to be able to present a plan which might be the nucleus of a scheme for settlement of provincial lands from the other hand.

"We don't propose to fill up the country with people who will simply sit idle in the cities," said the Premier.

"We must improve our marketing conditions and prove to these people that they can make a good thing out of the land. We must treat newcomers fairly. We don't propose to bring them here with any false advertisements. There is no short cut to success in agriculture."

The Premier reminded Conservatives that the Cabinet had a duty to think provincially. It was their duty to establish stability. They were glad of advice, but must in a final analysis, act with the broad interests of the whole province in mind.

HOSTILE CRITICISM
After thanking Conservatives for work which they did to win the election, the Premier went on to ask of criticism which had been meted out at the new Cabinet, and said:

"If it amuses them and helps to papers, it is all right with me," said Tolmie. "I'm for anything that develops industry in British Columbia."

MINISTERS PRAISED
The Premier said that the Cabinet was working harmoniously, and he had no doubt that there had been no difference of opinion between himself and Mr. Pooley, Attorney-General. He justified his action of Mr. Pooley as Attorney-General and Minister of Agriculture by that Minister's implementation of the plan.

ASSISTANCE TO INDUSTRY IS ADVOCATED

Conservative Ass'n Asks Government to Consider Advantages of Research and Development Branch

RURAL HOSPITAL REFORM URGED
Mr. C. M. O'Brien, K.C., Is Chosen as President of Association, With Lt.-Col. Foster as Deputy Head

VANCOUVER, Nov. 17.—Mr. C. M. O'Brien, K.C., Vancouver, is the new president of the British Columbia Conservative Association. He was elected to succeed Hon. Nels Loughheed at the closing session on Saturday afternoon at the Hotel Georgia, of the annual meeting of the organization.

Lieutenant-Colonel W. W. Foster is first vice-president, and the other officers are: Second vice-president, Frank Hassard, Enderby; third vice-president, Mrs. A. J. Patterson, Vancouver; fourth vice-president, Mrs. C. M. Waggett, Kamloops; sixth vice-president, J. Kirkpatrick, Penticton; honorary treasurer, C. A. Welsh, New Westminster; honorary secretary, J. J. Whalen, Vancouver.

J. E. Carpenter, former secretary, was nominated for honorary secretary, but did not permit his name to go to ballot. Other members of the executive will include two representatives from each Federal riding, one of whom must be a woman.

INDUSTRIAL OPPORTUNITIES
The meeting considered resolutions during the greater portion of the afternoon, some of which were adopted and others referred to the ministers for consideration. The advisability of the Government creating a separate department to explore the possibility of establishing industries and carry on research work and experiments and to investigate market opportunities, so as to determine the feasibility and adaptability of such industries, was recommended by the gathering.

The resolution referring to the question of rural hospitals was submitted by the Vancouver Conservative Association.

The convention on motion of Rodrick Mackenzie, M.L.A.-elect, went on record as favoring a greater measure of relief of the present financial condition of rural hospitals by creating hospital wards.

VOTE UPHELDS PREMIER BRUCE
AUSTRALIAN FEDERAL GENERAL ELECTION RESULTS IN GOVERNMENT WIN

Nationalist Coalition Elects Forty-Six Members—Labor Party Twenty-Nine

MELBOURNE, Australia, Nov. 18.—Incomplete returns from Saturday's general elections indicate that the new House of Representatives will consist of forty-six Government supporters and twenty-nine Laborists. Labor made some gains.

All members of the Government, as well as the Labor Party leaders, appeared to have been re-elected: Premier Stanley Bruce, leader of the Nationalists, Hon. Dr. Earle Page, treasurer and leader of the Country Party, and James Henry Scullin, Labor Party leader, having particularly substantial majorities.

After one of the most fiercely fought campaigns in Australian history, voters went to the polls Saturday to elect a new Parliament. Premier Stanley Bruce sought a third term in office as Prime Minister and head of the Nationalist Party, while the opposition came from the Labor Party. The third party in the field was the Country Party, under Dr. Earle C. Page, Federal Treasurer, which has been allied with the Nationalists since 1923. Overriding all other issues was the dominant campaign cry of the Government forces, an appeal for law and order, on which appeal the Government was successful in the general elections of 1925. The violence during and following the recent waterfront workers' strike gave rise to this appeal. On the other hand Labor pledged itself, through James Scullin, newly appointed Labor leader, to provide sound business-like administration of the Arbitration Act, tariff reform in the direction of protecting Australian industries and abolition of many of the Federal administrative commissions.

D'Arcy Greig, and a fourth contender yet to be named, will strive for the world's speed record. The Schneider Cup is the highest trophy to be won by aviators. The world's swiftest planes are entered, and amazing speeds have been made in these contests. In a preliminary test recently flown in Britain, a velocity of 345 miles to the hour is said to have been attained.

CHINA SEEKING MORE FRIENDLY RELATIONSHIP

East Meets West Around Banquet Table to Hear of Aspirations of Awakening Republic

DR. CHU EXPLAINS NATIONALIST CAUSE
"We want our countrymen to come to Canada and be educated here, so that when they graduate they can return to China and become good leaders and help govern the country in an intelligent manner. We want to encourage more students to come to Canada, and increase trade relationship between China and Canada by drawing together a closer bond of friendship, by bringing about a better understanding between the two peoples. This can only be accomplished by educating our students in Canada so that they may learn the Canadian ways and grasp Canadian thoughts."

"We do not blame you for exclusion of Chinese immigrants. We can do the same thing, but we do hope and strive for better treatment here. If they receive good treatment, they return to China to broadcast the good news in China. Our Chinese consuls report on the treatment received by our countrymen, and if the treatment is good it helps toward a better relationship between the two countries, which is what the Nationalist Government is striving for. We must get to understand one another better and help each other mutually. By this we foster not only friendship between two great countries, but foster what is far more important, the good of the world."

Rescue Boat Overturned; Five Drown

OTTAWA, Kas., Nov. 17.—The raging flood waters of the Maraia des Cygne River took a toll of five lives here late today when the motorboat in which two doctors, Dr. J. Shires and Dr. J. Ward Smith, were doing rescue work, capsized and the two men, Mrs. C. O. Jones, and her two small daughters, all drowned. The doctors had made four trips during the day, rescuing refugees from farms near the river, and were on their fifth when a wave struck the boat and turned it over about a quarter of a mile from shore. Many persons witnessed the tragedy.

LACK OF CO-OPERATION
It has been a subject of complaint that in connection with the carrying out of the duties of government in outlying centres, for instance, there is a lack of co-ordination, and some branches of the service have a tendency to carry out their work without consideration for the general work of the Government as applying to the outlying centres. It is too early to know whether the auditors will recommend any radical changes in the carrying out of the details of the Government service.

PUBLIC MARKET TO COST OVER $50,000
Second Store to Be Erected East of Market Building—Piggly-Wiggly Chain Coming Here

CONSTRUCTION of a public market building on the southeast corner of Fort and Vancouver Streets will be undertaken the first of next year, Mr. Harry R. Leech, of Santa Monica, Cal., announced yesterday. The building will cost approximately $50,000 and will be of the L-shape type now used in large California cities, giving park space for shoppers' cars while making their domestic purchases. Adjacent to the market building will be a parking area with a sixty-foot frontage on Fort Street and adjacent to that another building with thirty-foot frontage on Fort Street will also be erected. One of the Piggly-Wiggly chain stores will occupy part of the market buildings.

Mr. Leech stated to The Colonist yesterday that he and Mr. R. F. Hayden, of Beverly Hills, Cal., had purchased the southeast corner of Fort and Vancouver Streets. The property has a 240-foot frontage on Fort Street, 112-foot frontage on Vancouver Street, and 240 feet frontage on Meats Street.

SITE BEING CLEARED
Tearing down of old houses and sign boards will commence shortly. The market building will occupy property with 150-foot frontage on Fort Street. There will be a bakery, fish, butchery, grocery, drug, delicatessen and drygoods stores in the building. Right on the corner will be a service station. The vacant property between the gas pumps and the market building will be covered with gravel to provide parking space for shoppers' cars.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17.—The watershed brush fire, burning since midnight in Las Flores and Tuna canyons, sixteen miles north of here, destroyed more than a dozen houses and cabins late tonight.

FLOOD MAROONS KANSAS TRAINS

COTTONWOOD RIVER RISES 27 FEET—RAILWAY LINES DEMORALIZED
City of Emporia Isolated—Salesman Drowns When His Car Is Washed Off Road

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 17.—At Emporia, the Cottonwood River reached a twenty-seven foot level tonight, the highest point ever attained within the memory of men, and it is still rising. Every highway to the city is blocked by water and the muddy eddies are lapping upper beams of bridges over all streams in that vicinity.

Railroad lines, utterly demoralized in both Kansas and Missouri today, struggled to maintain schedules with partial success. In Missouri the various lines co-operated by rerouting of trains. In Kansas schedules meant just so much printing matter. Paola, Kansas, reported that all rail transportation was at a standstill. Serious property damage was incurred at Augusta, near Wichita, when a pumping station exploded under the strain of endeavoring to handle the flood of water. Other damage, such as loss of crops and livestock, also occurred in that vicinity. So far as is known two persons lost their lives, although numerous rumors of deaths were reported. At Hilldale, Kansas, A. R. Hudson, a Joplin, Mo., salesman, was washed from the highway. Mrs. Grace Tucker, thirty-three of Wellington, Mo., was drowned when she stepped from the porch of her home and fell into the swollen water of Sni-a-Bar Creek as the family was preparing to vacate their house.

Many Ports Send Word of Vessels in Need of Help

Shipping Damaged on Northern, Western and Southern Coasts--Wire and Rail Communications Widely Interrupted--Automobiles Are Blown About

LONDON, Nov. 17.—Death and widespread ruin were left by a severe three-day storm which moved from England into France and Germany today. Forty-eight persons are known to be dead, many are injured and homeless and damages are already estimated at many millions of dollars. Nineteen persons were killed in England, either by wreckage torn loose by the wind or by stumbling in front of vehicles while bucking the storm with heads down. A family of twelve was given up as lost at Amsterdam when a report was received that the wreck of their boat had been seen in the Zuyder Zee.

TAX RECEIPTS FOR 1928 MAY BREAK RECORD

Comptroller of Victoria, With Month and a Half to Go, Makes Forecast on Collections

REVENUES SHOW MANY INCREASES
With the prospect of tax collections reaching 80 per cent of the levy for the first time since the war, City Comptroller D. A. MacDonald struck a note of optimism in his statement of the city's financial condition yesterday.

The figures issued were taken for the year up to the close of business on November 15. A total of $1,423,288 was collected up to November 16, from current taxes, out of a levy of $1,604,135. This represents 88.72 per cent of the levy. The percentage of collection for the whole of last year amounted to 88.94 per cent, Mr. MacDonald stated, so that all that remains to bring this year's percentage up to that of last year is to collect another one-fifth of one per cent of the current taxes.

In order to collect 80 per cent of the levy another 1,274 per cent is needed. Between November 15 and the end of the year in 1927 a total of $20,450 was collected. If the same amount is collected during the same period this year, and there is every reason to believe that this will be so, we will have collected 90 per cent of the levy for the first time since the war. This is a most encouraging sign," Mr. MacDonald stated.

"So far we have collected $226,695 from arrears in taxes," the comptroller said. The estimate for the year is $232,250, leaving for the year $5,555 to be collected between now and the end of December. In the same period last year we collected $8,400, so that we are certain to reach our estimate this year.

"In respect to two-year-old arrears in taxes we have passed the estimated collection by $1,906 for the whole year, with practically another two months to help swell that increase."

The land buyers' tax account, which is the account to which are credited taxes on land sold by the city during the year, shows a collection of $2,881, as against an estimate of $1,000 for the entire year. "Redemptions of properties sold by the city at last year's tax sale amounted to $11,711, against an estimate of $10,000 for the year. Since November 15 we have collected another $1,000 from this source, so that the total now stands at $12,711, or $2,711 over the estimate for the year."

PARENTE JAILED
SEATTLE, Nov. 17.—Joe Parente, one-time liquor baron, of San Francisco, arrived here tonight from Vancouver, B.C., in custody of Federal officers. He was lodged in the county jail, whence he will be taken, officers said, to McNeil's Island Federal penitentiary to serve a two-year sentence imposed in San Francisco.

LIFEBOATS AT WORK
All along the English coast valiant lifeboat crews faced the storm time after time to bring in the crews and passengers of ships in distress. Undaunted by the death of seven members of the crew of the Rye Harbor lifeboat Thursday morning while going to the assistance of the steamer Alice, of Riga, Latvia, the lifeboat crew fought through low-lying waves and floating wreckage from the rocky coast or beaches. Larger ships plunged into the teeth of the gale, but even many of those fought a losing battle and called for help.

From the cross-Channel steamer Maid of Orleans came a wireless call for doctors to be at Boulogne when the ship docked. All of the 198 passengers and the entire crew were ill throughout the twelve-hour voyage from Folkestone. After eight attempts to get the ship into the narrow harbor, the captain was forced to abandon the attempt and signal for smaller ships ashore to take his passengers off.

valuable, the gospel of world-wide brotherhood.
Thus spoke Dr. Chu, of Vancouver, before a large gathering at the banquet held in the Empress Hotel
last night by the Western Canadian Chinese Nationalist League, bringing to a close the convention of the Western division of the Chinese Nationalist League in Canada,
which has been in session here during the past week.

EXPLAINS GATHERING

Mr. Lee Chee, manager of the Ying Chong Lung Company, presided as chairman. He explained that the gathering was being held in the hope of strengthening the bond of friendship between Canada and China, to explain the principles underlying the Nationalist Government in China with a view to encouraging better relationship and bringing about increased trade between the two countries. He introduced Dr. Chu, of Vancouver, as the speaker of the evening. Dr.
Chu proved himself not only an eloquent speaker but also a humorist.

Dr. Chu stated that the Nationalist Government had instructed him to organize itself into three divisions, the Western convention,
the Central convention and Eastern convention.

The object of the Nationalists was to help the people toward a better form of government, one that was more efficient and more peaceable, and to promote international good will, and spread the gospel of peace and world-wide brotherhood.

There were three principles underlying the Nationalist Government which were respected in the Occident. The principles were:

First: "The people's nationalism, or government of the people."

Second: "The people's rights, or government by the people."

Third: "The people's livelihood, or government for the people."

EXPLAINS MOVEMENT

Dr. Chu explained that there were three stages in the development of the new Chinese Empire as laid down by Dr. Sun Yat Sen, who was the inspiration of the Nationalist Government. First there was the military period, which was made necessary to free the country from the shackles of officialdom and liberate the people from the tyrannical rule of the Manchus. This period started on the second stage, that of education, during which period
the people of China were to be taught the true meaning of democracy and trained to govern themselves so that they would be prepared to enter upon the third and last period, that of democracy.
"The Chinese masses are not educated and it is the purpose of the Nationalist Government to see that they are educated and get the physical training that will develop a sturdy race. We are now in the educational period, and we wish not only to take advantage of the learning of our Chinese citizens abroad but to encourage our students to come to Canada and be educated in Canadian universities, so that they may return to China and in turn instruct those there in the proper administration of their own affairs."

"We have launched an ambitious reconstruction programme that will build up our educational system and open up our country and develop it as it would have been developed but for the oppression of the Manchus dynasty. We seek to politically improve our people and instruct them in such a way that they will be able to govern their country. We propose to send our students to your universities to acquire knowledge. That will help us in this. You know what your universities are, so I need not tell you of our hopes for the future,
with graduates from those universities taking the leadership in our country."

BRIGHT FUTURE FORECAST

Dr. Chu spoke of the recognition that foreign powers were now giving the Nationalist Government in China. They realized that the people of China were earnestly striving to bring about a more stable form of government and a more peaceful country.

"Because the future of China is so bright and hopeful, your trade and our trade will increase 100, even 1,000 per cent within the next few years," he declared.

At the conclusion of his address

Sumas Reclamation Area May Develop As Revenue Maker

promises made in the Conservative election manifesto.

Premier Tolmie praised the work being done by Mr. W. C. Shelly, in the Finance Department. He told of the volume of work which came upon the shoulders of Mr. S. L.
Howe, Provincial Secretary. He explained some of the many duties
devolving on Mr. Joshua Hinchliffe, Minister of Education. The importance of Mr. William Atkinson's labors in the Agricultural Department, and those of Mr. W. A. Mc-Kenzie, the Mines Department, were emphasized by the speaker.
He drew attention to the important work being carried on by Mr. F. P.
Burden in the Lands Department,
and Mr. Nels Lougheed in the Public Works Department.

Speaking of the Public Works Department, the Premier referred to the new policy of opening tenders in public works.

"We propose to carry on the business of British Columbia with all our cards on the table and open to inspection by the people of this province," he added.

P.E.G. RAILWAY

Speaking of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway the Premier reminded his audience that the Cabinet had sized up the road and were still gathering data. They were certain that the lands adjacent to the railway would one day prove a great asset to the province.

They had offers and inquiries about the road and some were anxious for quick decision, but they felt that they should have all the possible knowledge of the situation,
so that they might bargain intelligently.

He proposed a toast to the British Empire, and to the hope for improved relations between China and the Empire.

Alderman William Marchant, on behalf of the city, expressed his deep appreciation of the honor he was in being invited to attend the banquet. He wished to reciprocate in the sentiments expressed by Dr. Chu.

"We want a better understanding between Canadians and Chinese, and that can only be accomplished by knowing each other." Thus he welcomed the proposal of the Nationalist Government to send its students to Canadian universities.

Alderman Marchant felt that he spoke the unanimous feeling of the council when he said they "wished for the utmost harmony and concord between the Chinese and Canadians."

He also wished to reciprocate in the sentiments expressed by Dr. Chu that a sincere effort should be made to foster cord, fellowship and peace on earth. We are one in the great brotherhood of nations.

The speaker wished the Nationalist Government success in their efforts toward peace within the empire, democratic government and development of China.

Other speakers of the evening were: Dr. W. J. Sippell, Alderman
H. O. Litchfield, Alderman Joseph
B. Clearhugh, Mr. Ira Dilworth,
principal of the High School, Dr.
J. A. Plakett, Mr. J. M. Campbell,
principal of the North Ward School;
Dr. Lee Poy Ting, Anglican minister, and Mr. Stuart Henderson.

Among the invited guests, other than those attending the Chinese Nationalist League convention, were:
Mr. William Hudson, of the Great
West Life Insurance Company; Mr.
Harry Hodges, assistant managing editor of The Times; Trustee J. L.
Beckwith, Alderman H. O. Litch-

helpless with her rudder broken, her mast snapped off and her radio damaged. The Hamburg American liner Leunke and other vessels are rushing to her assistance.

From the Mediterranean came a report that the 3,000-ton mail steamer
Montenegro is stranded on the rocks.
Italian naval tugs are said to have answered the ships SOS, and it is reported that all of the thirty passengers have been rescued.

Several disasters to fishing vessels have been reported. One body is said to have been washed ashore at Lorient. The steamer Marlwood wireless that her steering gear was disabled, that the second mate had been washed overboard and that she was badly in need of assistance.

Numerous German and Swedish ships broke from their anchorage and were carried into the open ocean
when the storm extended over the North Sea. The Bremen liner Lindenfels is stranded near Bremer haven, and tugs have been sent to assist her. A German tug is towing the English vessel Genaria to Yarmouth, after the Genaria had lost her propeller. Two German tugs towed the Belgian steamer Alexander to Shustring after the Belgian vessel failed in her attempt to make port with a damaged engine.

The crews of the vessels English
Coast, Mary Barrow and Ekber Everad, abandoned their ships and were taken to shore by lifeboats
along the coast of the Continent.

NEW BUILDING WILL RISE ON FORT STREET

East of the public market buildings will be an area sixty feet by 112 feet.
This will be laid out for parking purposes. East again of this area will be constructed another store
fronting on a thirty-foot frontage on Fort Street and running back 112 feet to Mears Street. Loading accommodation for delivery trucks will be provided for on Mears Street, away from the main traffic channel.

IDEA IS POPULAR

Mr. Leech stated that the public market idea of shopping had taken a firm hold in California, as it permitted those who had cars to drive up and park their cars where they wanted to shop without any inconvenience. It got away from the old system of hunting for a place to park the car and then tramping the city to make the various purchases.
The vegetable market would be similar to that in Seattle, Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles. All vegetables would be kept fresh with running water and be ready for cooking when bought. Every domestic purchase possible to conceive could be obtained in this market.
The grocery business would be taken care of by one of the ten chain stores that would be established here by the Piggly-Wiggly Company.

Mr. Leech also announced the sale of a large block of land at the corner of Beach Drive and Windsor Road. The property was sold by Mrs. Ferguson to the Home Oil Company, which plans to erect a service station there.

Mr. Leech is a heavy investor in Victoria real estate and has already improved many parcels of land that he bought from the city. Three stores at the Oak Bay Junction, being erected for Mr. Leech, are nearing completion.

AUDITORS MAY FAVOR PLAN OF
CO-ORDINATION

In addition to the ordinary audit which will be carried out, the firm will also be charged with the duty which often attaches to efficiency experts, and their recommendation looking to savings along this line will be heard with attention by the members of the Government.

"Every phase of Government business is to be covered by the auditing firm," under the instructions that have been issued to it.

DEMAND FOR CHANGE

On the hustings the Premier and the members of his Government, and all the supporters, made a demand for the bringing in of efficiency in the conduct of public affairs. There was a disposition on the part of the electorate to doubt that the system that prevailed was in all respects one of the most efficient. It is the general wish of the public to know where the situation can be improved, and it is anticipated that the auditors may before completing the investigations in hand, make recommendations which may materially result in improving of the system that prevails.

At the present time the staff in the employ of the auditing firm is steadily carrying on their work in rooms in the buildings. It is expected that some time will be occupied with the task now in hand, before the running up will take place, and the recommendations will be forthcoming.

THOUGHT SHIP NOT YET LOST

CHIEF ENGINEER THOUGHT
VESSEL COULD BE SAVED
EVEN AFTER SOS CALL

Officer Tells Inquiry Court Disaster
Due to Leak—Tried to Find
It—Could Not

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Sea water poured into the steamer Vestris through leaky ports and hatches for a day and a half before the ship sank, the two senior surviving officers testified today, but almost until the very end they thought she could be saved.

The only witnesses at today's session of the Federal inquiry into the disaster were First Officer Frank Johnson and the chief engineer,
James Adams. Adams told of reporting to the captain at 11 o'clock SOS, had been sent out, that he believed he could keep the ship floating indefinitely.

HEAVY LURCH

Johnson said that Sunday evening the ship lurched heavily and he was at once informed that a bulhead had broken down and cargo had gone through to the bottom. He inspected and said he found that a "half door" near the bulkhead was leaking. On one side of the door, he said, about as much water was coming as would be carried in a two-inch pipe. He had men try to tighten up the bolts, which on this door were on the inside, but the door seemed to be sprung and the leak could not be stopped. Johnson said that the cargo that went through the bulkhead weighed about fifteen tons, but that the shifting of this weight
could not make the ship list.

He agreed with Tuttle that water entering the ship was responsible for the list, which increased during Sunday night to about 30 degrees.
"Where was the water coming in besides the two-inch stream?" Tuttle asked.

"That's just what we tried to find out," said Johnson. He said that in his opinion "Something had sprung" in the side of the ship, and told of hearing water running in between decks where no one could get at it.

At a recent convention in Manchester, England, of municipalities in Great Britain owning their transportation systems, the eighty-four cities represented had invested in lines a total of $4,150,000,000 and employed 87,000 people and last year carried 4,392,000,000 passengers.

The South African Mine Workers' Union is discussing changing its constitution so that negro workers
may be included in its membership, providing they are earning wages
equal to those of white members.

OIL EXTRACTION

At the coming session of the Legislature, an application, it is announced, will be made for an act to incorporate the Telkwa-Kittimaat Railway Company. Notice of the application for the incorporation has already appeared in the B.C. Gazette over the name of Cowan &amp; Cowan, solicitors for the company.

It is many years since application has been made for the incorporation of a railway company within the Province. There was a

E. METCALFE

"Yes, Husky has built me up wonderfully, and I've never seen anything strengthen you as fast," said E. Metcalfe, well known advertising man of the Vancouver Province.

"I was tired and run down," he said, "and had no energy at all before I started Husky. I suffered a great deal from indigestion and was always bothered with gas on my stomach after eating. These gas pains were so bad I couldn't move sometimes."

"I began taking Husky, after it was highly recommended to me, and it has made me feel fine. I'm on my third bottle and I have lots of pep and energy. There is no more gas on my stomach and I never have a pain after eating. To give strength and relieve indigestion I don't believe Husky can be beat." It's all because Husky relieves acidity, which irritates the mucous linings of your stomach, sours your food and saps your vitality.

time when every session of the Legislature had no inconsiderable part of the time of the session given over to the consideration of applications for railway charters, with approximately late for extensions of the time for the carrying out of the undertakings in many instances.

The company now applying is to have its headquarters in Vancouver with a capitalization of $100,000. The object of the railway planned is evidently to give deep water connection with the coal fields of Telkwa and Copper River by shortening the route as compared with what it would be over the C.N.R. line (the old G.T.P.).

The general character of the route is from Telkwa along the river of the same name, thence down the Copper River to Copper City or thereabouts, where the C.N.R. would again be reached, cutting off the great bow formed by the existing route in its passage from Telkwa to Copper City, where by Hazelton is taken in. The remaining part of the route is from the C.N.R. at Copper City or thereabouts to Kittimaat Arm.

The route is an easy one of construction. The part from Kittimaat almost to Lakeelse Lake was rough graded to a winter sleighing road during the days of the construction of the old G.T.P. The evident intention is to bring the coal of the Telkwa region or the products that are to be obtained from it to navigable water at the shortest distance.

Interests which had in view the use of the coal in that territory for the conversion of it into other forms, principally the extraction of the oil from it, have investigated the matter, and the statement is made that they are well satisfied with the prospects. It would appear that the railway is intended to serve the shipping needs of the company.

GOLF COURSE TO BE MADE

Will Be Located at University Reserve, on 120-Acre Plot, and Be Public Links

REGULATION OF FEES RESERVED

Greater Vancouver is to have the advantages of a public golf course through the co-operation of the Provincial Government, which is authorizing a lease of some 120 acres of land in the University Reserve at Point Grey. The carrying out of the plan is in the hands of Mr. P. M. Ballard, of Vancouver, who has negotiated the deal with the Minister of Lands.

Hon. P. P. Burden, the Minister of Lands, explains that the details are yet to be carried out before the lease passes. The matter has been gone into with the prospective lessee, and the course of a few days, may be expected to execute the contract which has been authorized, and which will be for the benefit of the public.

While this is the condition, the interests of the province are being well safeguarded in the granting of the lease. The part of the reserve that is being utilized by Mr. Ballard, and upon which he will spend a very considerable sum of money, is one which precludes it from coming into use for a considerable number of years in any other capacity.

The area which is involved in the transaction is just within the University Reserve near the Tenth Avenue entrance to that area of land. It is technically described as within Lot 140, Group One, New Westminster District.

In this connection, however, the right to cancel on giving fair notice is reserved by the Province, and in the meantime a revenue is to be derived by the department during the term of the lease.

There will, moreover, in the contract which is to be entered into, be stipulations that the course is to be open to the public, and that it will not be operated as a close corporation with regard to those wishing to take advantage of it. The Province will, moreover, reserve the right to pass upon the fees to be paid in connection with the carrying on of the scheme. In every way the interests of the general public are being protected in the terms of the agreement that will be entered into.

The need of public golf courses in these days is being felt very keenly in most of the larger communities, and in Vancouver this is true. Under the plans that have been laid, this need is being met without interfering for the present with the plans for developing the area in which the course will be located. The laying out of the course will not mar the location, but, on the contrary, will materially add to the environment rather than allow the area to lie in its primitive condition. Whenever the area is needed in the carrying out of the plans for the subdividing of the district, the property will be taken over and be utilized as seems best. In the meantime the opportunity is to be made of use of the area without loss to the Province, but on the contrary, with gain to it.

GRADUALLY SUBDIVIDED
The University Reserve, under the policy that has been in vogue, is being subdivided as the demand appears to warrant. The land has been cleared, but no other improvements have been made upon it, and there is an undergrowth developing now which detracts from the appearance of the section, and is not improving the opportunities for bringing it into proper shape when the time comes for subdividing.

The use of it for the golf course proposed will be a decided advantage to the Government, inasmuch as the land will be improved for the purposes of the golf links, which will be of permanent value, assisting in the work of preparing it for the market when the proper time comes to carry this out.

THE SEVENTIETH BIRTHDAY

The clear narrative of history and the glamour of romance have colored the story of the countries round the margin of the Pacific Ocean which have been accelerated in their settlement by the discovery of gold. British Columbia owes in a special degree its development to the gold rush of 1858. The publicity which the attraction of the diggings circulated among the people of three continents, brought a large accretion of population.

The Lady Douglas Chapter, I.O.E., in its inception some years ago of perpetuating annually the proclamation by which the colony of British Columbia was formally called into existence, has achieved an act which has led the people of the Lower Mainland to awaken to the fact that there is a history behind them antecedent to the commercial development which has made a metropolis on the Burrard peninsula.

Tomorrow this chapter of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire will hold a commemoration of the event of seventy years ago, when Sir James Douglas was proclaimed as Governor of the new colony of British Columbia at Fort Langley, and thereby began a vigorous administration which was supplemented by the remarkably efficient detachment of Royal Engineers sent out to keep law and build, public works in the infant colony. While it is due to the initiative of an Island organization that the birthday of British Columbia is observed, there is no fear now that the commemoration of the date will be allowed to lapse on the Lower Mainland.

ANTARCTIC RESEARCH

The expedition to Antarctic regions commanded by Sir Hubert Wilkins is now on its way southwards. It is furnished with two Lockheed monoplane and scientific equipment greater than ever carried by a polar exploration party before. The main base will be at Deception Island in the South Shetlands from where exploratory trips will be made. The first depot is to be in Graham Land, from 500 to 600 miles south of Deception Island. Among the trips planned is a final jump by monoplane across the uncharted territory of the Antarctic. New geographical discoveries are expected. An effort will be made to ascertain if there is an Antarctic continent as large as the United States, and to find out if the mountain system which includes the Rockies, the Andes and the dividing range of Australia, continues across the Antarctic continent "and so forms a continuous mountain circuit about the Pacific Ocean."

Sir Hubert Wilkins believes that as a result of Antarctic observations it will be possible to supply a missing chapter in the history of the world's formation. Observations already made by previous explorers show that the mountain fringe of the 10,000-foot plateau on which the South Pole is situated extends from the north end of the Ross Sea to within 600 miles of the Pole and then swings to the southeast. The Wilkins expedition will seek to find out if it connects with the high mountain peaks on Graham Land. The mountain ranges of Graham Land are of volcanic lava and igneous rocks. On the Ross Sea side the mountains are of sedimentary rocks between which are immense seams of coal and fossilized vegetation. The belief is that once the Antarctic continent had a temperate climate, was covered with dense vegetation and trees and shrubs and was free from ice. There are some signs to show that the ice is again receding from the territory. It may be that for the increased population of posterity the Antarctic will uncover vast natural resources in a land now looked upon as a barren waste of ice.

VITAMINS AND HEALTH

Perhaps no subject of absorbing public interest has been submitted to so many different interpretations in recent years as that of diet. The medical discovery of the virtues of vitamins is bringing about a revolution in the menus in homes, if it has not yet made its effect felt in restaurants and hotels. There is no household now which is not, in some form or other, studying diet and ringing the changes on foodstuffs in order to increase health. There is a "vitaminic" conscience at work, and the trouble is that so little is known about the elusive substance in foods that dieting frequently goes wrong because it is the subject of too much experiment.

It has been held, for instance, for some few years past that one of the merits of sunlight is its power to increase the germ-killing strength of the blood. This belief has inspired much guidance offered to the public about artificial sunlight and about the chemical substitute for artificial sunlight, (Vitamin D). This theory has been upset by a communication to The British Medical Journal by Drs. Green and Mellanby of the Pharmacological Department, University of Sheffield. This is to the effect that Vitamin D is, in all probability, not possessed of any powers of raising the germ-killing strength of the blood. Such power, it is held, belongs to Vitamin A. There has been an extensive study made of animals on a diet deficient in Vitamin A, and practically all of these have died with some infective or pyogenic lesion. The lesions were absent where the animals received Vitamin A. The conclusion reached is that Vitamin D is unrelated to resistance to infection.

The lesions produced in animals by diets deficient in Vitamin A are commonly found in man. This statement is believed to discount sunlight, and such products as ergosterol, as means of preventing winter ailments. Their influence in preventing rickets is not disputed. The conclusion reached is that it is Vitamin A, and not Vitamin D for its equivalent sunlight, which is the shield against bronchitis, pneumonia and other seasonal diseases. Attention is drawn to the fact that Vitamin A is seldom present in sufficient quantities in ordinary diets. Then the report to the British Medical Journal goes on to describe on those substances which are richest in Vitamin A content. It says: "The liver oils of the salmon and halibut may be more than 100 times as rich in Vitamin A as cod liver oil, though these oils are not likely to be a useful commercial source of the vitamin any more than the liver fats of birds like the grouse or the goose, which have also been shown to be extremely rich in the vitamin. Dr. Rosenheim and Mr. Webster have found, however, that the liver fats of the sheep, calf and ox contain ten times as much Vitamin A as good cod liver oil. The Vitamin A content of butter varies widely according to circumstances; sheep and ox liver fat contains from 200 to 1,000 times more Vitamin A than a good average sample of butter."

Hitherto Vitamin A has been regarded as the "growth promoting vitamin." The suggestion now made is that in future the name ought to be changed to the "anti-infective vitamin." The definite suggestion made by the Sheffield doctors is that liver should be added to the weekly bill of fare during the winter months when infection is rife. The necessity of sunbaths remains, and it is urged that these should not be neglected inasmuch as Nature needs both Vitamin A and Vitamin D. This latest discovery, which leads to the recommendation of a liver diet, recalls the memorably prophetic utterance of Punch when, many years ago, as a final word to a controversy raging on the subject of "Is Life Worth Living," it said "That depends on the liver."

Japan is a proud nation and is not likely to continue to bear with the community the boycott against her goods which has been instituted by the new authorities in China. That boycott, in South China at least, is being pursued with vigor. In Canton pickets are guarding the thoroughfares and the harbor, is being watched against the entry of Japanese goods. These goods are being seized and confiscated daily, and anyone buying Japanese commodities does so at his own risk and has to undertake his own transport. Special tax stamps have been printed to the value of 20 per cent of the article sold to be affixed to Japanese goods. The new Government is building up an anti-Japanese feeling which is bound to have an unpleasant repercussion.

Mr. Henry Ford believes that within a very short time the aeronautic industry will be a serious competitor of the automobile industry because modern aircraft costs no more to run than the average motor car. His prophecy is that the comfortable cabin aircraft will be used in the future for journey of over ten miles, but that motor cars will continue to be used for the shorter distance. Mr. Ford is backing his belief by turning his attention more and more to the manufacture of aircraft.

An illustration of the degeneracy of the "literature" of the age is furnished by two biographies of American Presidents which are shortly to be published. One is entitled "This Man Adams" and the other "Meet Gen. Grant."

CRAFTSMANSHIP

Every worker who strives to put into the doing of the task in hand the best that heredity, training and experience have conferred on him will read these lines from Nature with understanding:
"Craftsmanship is the quintessence of happy toil. In its highest form it is the greatest contribution which the individual can make to the happiness of the community. It is at once a wonder, a joy, and an inspiration to others. The elements of which fine craftsmanship is compounded are, as defined by Sir William Bragg, knowledge of materials, imagination, technical skill, perseverance, love of the work itself, sympathy with the use that is to be made of it and with the user. This defined, craftsmanship is identical with citizenship at its best. The contentment of the user is probably less important than the satisfaction of the maker."

The man or woman who reads the full meaning of these sentences is master of a trade, a master of life; the man or woman to whom they mean nothing is an unfortunate, incomplete creature.—New York Sun.

RICH RELATIONS

Rich relations are a delusion and a snare. They are a mirage in the desert; they are Dead Sea apples filled with dust and ashes; they are mock-cherries loaded with blossoms that never bear fruit. They are patronizing to our attainments and hurt to our friends. They are supercilious to our sensibilities and critical of our failures. They are a snare to all social aspirations and a crick in the neck to our peace of mind.—E. A. McAlpin, in Scribner's (London).

The child is father of the man.—Wordsworth.

Note and Comment

By R. B. D.

Yesterday at a rather late hour a book was placed in our hands, accompanied by verbal instructions to read it over and say something about it in Sunday's Colonist. We took the book, a work of more than three hundred pages, well printed upon fine paper, and wondered what we should say about it—for the contents of a book of three hundred pages cannot be mentally absorbed and intellectually digested within the space of half an hour or so, with the devil of the printer standing at your elbow and wanting to know, in the name of the foreman, when the copy for that ruddy third column will be ready for the linotypes.

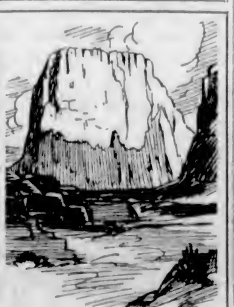

If our case had been your case, what would you have done about it? Here is what we did about it. We opened the book at random and copied the following sentences: "Then there is the frail thread of a romance which hangs literally on a tress of golden hair, that of a young mother whose skeleton, with that of her new born babe, was found in a coffin up on a hillside in the Queen Charlotte. The tragic narrative is thus handed down by the Indians. More than a hundred and fifty years ago, a fur trader's ship, sailing up from the South sea, overtook a sinking vessel, upon which the only two persons left alive were the captain and his beautiful daughter. The captain died soon after, leaving his child in the care of the master of the rescue vessel, who had promptly become enamored of her and urged his suit. But she was very young, and the thought of mating with a man of middle age was most repugnant to her. Besides, the gallant and handsome second officer was also very much in love with her, and he was little more than a lad. When the captain realized that he had no chance against his youthful rival, he determined on a cruel revenge. A small boat was launched, the first mate and young girl placed within it, a bag of provisions and a few clothes flung to them. Fate and the weather were kind. In time the little boat was brought ashore on one of the Queen Charlotte Islands. The Haida Indians, seeing the pretty, fair skinned girl with her long golden hair, thought her a being from the celestial world, and treated her and the young sailor with the utmost respect, lodging them in state and caring for them. She seems to have had the gift of nursing, for they tell today of how she helped them in sickness and tended the children."

That is not the end of the story. If you get the book you will find that it contains many stories quite as interesting, although it is a finished work of a biographical and historical character. We turned to another page and read the following: "What a change when they reached the rock-bound coast of Nootka, with the grim forest clothing the foothills, rattles of Indian war canoes! The naked savages crowding the decks of the little vessel, pressing close to the young girl, the only white woman they had ever met, wanting to touch her to find out if she was real. After leaving Nootka they bore down into the sound which was named for Barkley. Here a snow-crowned mountain peak was given the name of the bride, who before her marriage had been Frances Hornby Trevor. Today Mount Hornby rears its proud head, a lofty memorial to the adventurous girl of long ago!"

The book from which we have been quoting contains a historical and romantic record of the lives and works of the Pioneer Women of Vancouver Island. The compiling, writing and editing of it were placed in most competent hands by the Women's Canadian Club of this city, with the following dedication: "In order that we, and those who follow us, may remember the courage, strength of purpose and nobility of character which governed the lives of those pioneer women. It was written by N. de Bertrand Lugin and edited by John Hosie, acting under the counsel of an executive committee."

Christ Church Cathedral

By DAVID GRIEVE TUCKWELL

SLOWLY thy walls rise, strong and sure,
Each separate stone securely placed.
A Temple builded to endure.
When frailter work has been effaced.
Thy Gothic arches upward raise
Our minds from earth and sordid things
To Him, the object of all praise,
High God, Eternal King of Kings.

Christ Church Cathedral—nobly named
In honor of the Prince of Peace,
Who trod Death's winnowing unshamed
That we might find from Death release.
Not to restore an outworn creed,
Bind shackles on the minds of men;
But into larger freedom lead
And make this old world young again.

Lord, as we come and humbly lay
Our earthly tribute at Thy feet—
Which trod for us the shameful way
To Golgotha (for us more meet),
Firm may we find Thy promise stands,
Immutable, as it has stood,
"Even in Temples made with hands True worshippers shall meet with God."

GIVES TALK ON TOWN PLANNING

Mr. J. Alexander Walker, C.E., Addressed Nanaimo Rotarians—Dr. Lamb Also Speaks

NANAIMO, Nov. 17.—At their weekly luncheon in the Malaspina Hotel, yesterday, the Rotary Club had, as their guest of honor, Mr. J. Alexander Walker, C.E., who delivered an interesting and instructive address on the subject of town planning of the "City Beautiful."

Dr. Lamb, who is at the head of tuberculosis work in the province, was also present, and gave a very brief account of "A Trip to Rome," where he attended the annual international convention on tuberculosis. Dr. Lamb was one of the thirty-one Canadian doctors selected to make this trip, which lasted three months. He described in detail what they did, and the institutions they visited in Great Britain, in Paris, and in Rome. Owing to the fact that the addresses given at the convention were delivered in the language of the person speaking, the discussion, he said, was not as beneficial as it might have been. However, they came away from the convention, and from their tour of the Old Country fairly well satisfied with conditions in Canada and with the work they are carrying out in the Dominion. No cure, he said, had been found for tuberculosis, but a vaccination process, the discovery of two French doctors, promised big things, and if it should prove to be as effective as it looked, then in the next two or three decades it might be possible to eliminate tuberculosis.

Mr. J. Walker, in his address on the subject of "The City Beautiful," said he wished to congratulate the Rotary Club upon its choice of objectives. Service clubs throughout the continent have many very commendable objectives, he said, and doing splendid work. The "city beautiful" idea is probably the most commendable, as it is in itself probably the most fundamental step in all community welfare. All other community enterprises might be termed more or less auxiliary to this. A decade, or two or three, is a considerable period in the life of a man, but it is infinitesimal in the life of a city. The accomplishment of a town planning or city beautification programme is, of necessity, not one expected in the short period of a few years. The character of the work is of a progressive nature—the progressive elimination of the undesirable things and the progressive acquisition or accomplishment of the beneficial things.

PRESENTATION MADE TO SIR JOHN AIRD

TORONTO, Nov. 17.—Directors and senior members of the staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce gathered last night and presented Sir John Aird, president of the bank, with a solid gold punch or rose bowl. Sir John was in receipt during the day of many congratulations on his seventy-third birthday. Fifty years ago he began service with the bank as a stenographer. Sir Joseph Flavelle made the presentation.

POPPIE DAY
Sir, on behalf of the Armistice Period Committee we wish to thank the public for their generous response on Poppy Day and during the preceding weeks when so many Veterans wreaths were sold in Victoria.

The sale of poppies and wreaths far exceeded that of any other year. This means more work for crippled veterans and increased funds for the relief of those in need, and their dependents; such funds, the public may rest assured, will be administered with the greatest thought and care.

It also signifies the increasing importance which is attached to the Armistice celebration as the years pass by. We also wish to thank the people for their evident appreciation of the committee's endeavours in arranging the memorial service at the Cenotaph. This was evidenced by the fine attendance of veterans, which was greater in number than at any previous Armistice service.

The committee followed the precedent set by His Majesty the King, at the Cenotaph in London, in holding the service at our Victoria Cenotaph and observing the two minutes' silence. We trust the Armistice memorial service sponsored by this committee will always be held at the Cenotaph at 11 o'clock on the morning of November 11.

It is impossible to personally thank all those who helped in the celebration of Armistice Day, but diligent work on Poppy Day, resulted in the "Flower of Remembrance" being in so much evidence. BEAUMONT BOOGS, Chairman. C. K. MORRISON, Secretary. Armistice Period Committee, Victoria, B.C., November 17, 1928.

Mr. I. B. Sutton, International President, Returns From Pacific Rotary Conference Held in Tokio

PRINCE SUPPORTS IDEALS OF BODY

The second Pacific Rotary conference, which was held in Tokio, Japan, during the week of October 1, was an overwhelming success, according to Mr. I. B. Sutton, international president, who has returned to the Pacific Coast after attending the gathering.

The registration was about 50 per cent larger this year than at the first conference, in Honolulu, two years ago, Mr. Sutton says. The next conference will probably be held in New Zealand or Australia.

"There were delegations in Tokio from Australia, Canada, China, New Zealand, England, Hawaii, Mexico, Peru, the Philippines, Switzerland and the United States," Mr. Sutton said. "The Tokio conference was recognized and assisted by a great many persons in Japan of the highest rank, chief among them being His Imperial Highness Prince Kunyoshi Kuni, father of Her Majesty the Empress; His Excellency Baron Gichi Tanaka, Prime Minister of Japan; His Excellency Chuso Mitsuichi, Minister of Finance; and His Excellency the Minister of the Department of Commerce."

"Prince Kuni addressed us and we were greatly impressed with his gracious manner, his sincerity, his intimate knowledge of our movement and his great desire to aid in the advancement of such altruistic ideals as those contained in Rotary's philosophy."

Mr. Sutton assisted in the organization of a Rotary Club at Dairi, Manchuria, and visited all the Rotary Clubs in Japan.

Douglas Cabaret Is Reopened

The Douglas cabaret, reopened last evening for the winter season, will doubtless prove an attraction for the dancing public, and the management has spared nothing to make the rendezvous delightful in every way. Softly-shaded lights, and glowing log fire, flowers and an excellent dance orchestra have been combined for the pleasure of the cabaret patrons. Mr. Tommy Parker's company of entertainers gave a very enjoyable programme between the dances. At a moderate cover charge, supper was served, the tables being centred with vases of pink and bronze chrysanthemums. As an introduction the entire company appeared last evening in a bright little song and turn entitled "Hello! Hello!" written for the occasion by Mr. Parker. Mr. Les Everson, who possesses an unusually fine voice, sang "That's My Man, my man," and Miss Chlo Goffe sang with great charm "Indian Love Call." Miss Beatrice Dayton gave a fantastic Oriental dance, and Miss Grace Gendron delighted the guests with a Spanish fantasy. A clever toe dance was given by Miss Nita Erdahl.

Fashion Fancies

By Marie Belmont

Winter coats for dress wear tend to be more elaborate both in cut and material than they have been for many a season. Many of the smarter coats are cut on princess lines, as is the one in the illustration. It is a soft cashmere finished with fur and its deep cuffs, its collar, and the flare at the side are of contrasting carakul.

Girl Guide Movement in B.C. Increasing

After five weeks' tour through the interior of the province, Miss Aline Stewart Williams, provincial secretary of the Girl Guides, has returned to Victoria, and is enthusiastic regarding the progress being made by the Girl Guide movement throughout British Columbia. The numbers have been steadily increasing, until the total membership of the province now numbers 3,000. A more rapid advancement is considerably hindered, said Miss Williams, through lack of competent guides. Those who are already connected with the work are doing splendidly, and their determination and energy is remarkable, she said.

During her trip, Miss Williams held training classes at Kelowna, Nelson and Penticton, in each of which towns she found the greatest enthusiasm and progress. Wintermere was making a gallant struggle with small numbers, who had devoted their energies this year to a nature study, entering the Lieutenant-Governor's nature competition.

The largest company was at Kamloops, she stated, where thirty-five guides are enrolled, and the smartest of all the companies inspected by Miss Williams was that at the Indian school at Lytton, where Miss Richmond, and her lieutenant, Miss Bruce, have twenty-eight guides in their charge. The keenness and smartness of this company was a delight to see, and Miss Williams said that the singing of the children at this school and also at Vernon was particularly noteworthy.

The latest company to be formed is at Lillooet, where Miss Ora Bell is captain of ten guides. The children welcomed the idea of guiding with much enthusiasm, there having been already a Brownie pack, under the direction of Miss Joan Pugh.

Miss Williams says that "Guide spirit" flourishes everywhere, and there is a willingness to join the association on the part of a much larger number of children who are at present unable to do so, due to the pressing need for guides.

Weddings

TURNER-RIFE

Rev. Dr. Campbell celebrated a quiet marriage at his residence, "Breadalbane," Windsor Road, on Wednesday evening, the principals being Mr. C. Turner and Miss Aline Rife, both of this city. On returning from their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Turner will reside in Victoria. The bridegroom is of the city of Bristol, England, and the bride of Butte, Montana, U.S.A.

DAVIES-PEERS

On Friday afternoon a quiet wedding took place at "Breadalbane," Windsor Road, when the Rev. Dr. Campbell officiated at the marriage of Miss Irene Peers and Mr. Arthur Henderson Davies, both of Vancouver. Mr. and Mrs. Davies are spending their honeymoon in this city, after which they will make their home in the Terminal City.

STEWART-CAVE

A wedding of considerable interest here took place quietly at Trinity United Church, Vancouver, on Wednesday, when Rev. A. Hobden united in marriage Ethel Joyce, second daughter of Mr. A. Cave and the late Mrs. Cave, and Mr. James Alexander Stewart, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart, 1820 Union Street, Vancouver. The bride is well known here and received her education at the North Ward and Victoria High Schools. After the ceremony a reception was held for relatives and intimate friends only at the home of the groom's parents, 1629 Union Street, after which the happy couple left on the night boat for a honeymoon trip to Seattle and Victoria. On their return they will reside at Ryan Court, Tenth Avenue West, Vancouver.

DICKERSON-LEWIS

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. C. Lewis, Pandora Avenue, when her youngest daughter, Edith, became the bride of W. H. Dickerson, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Dickerson, "Colwood," Rev. Dr. W. G. Wilson officiating.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. D. J. Lewis (Port Angeles), and looked charming in a gown of blue georgette and Canton crepe. She carried a bouquet of pink and white chrysanthemums tied with pink and blue streamers. She was attended by Miss Ida Thomas, wearing a gown of rose crepe de Chine, and carrying a bouquet of white and mauve chrysanthemums. The groom was attended by Mr. Rhys Lewis, brother of the bride. During the signing of the register, Mrs. W. C. Williams rendered a solo, "Out of the Dusk," accompanied by "The Dusk," the reception that followed, the bride and groom stood beneath a beautifully decorated arch and received many congratulations, after which a buffet supper was served.

The groom's gift to the bride was a white gold bar pin; to the bridesmaid, a necklace; to the best man, a penknife. The bride's gift to the groom was a silk scarf. The bride received many useful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Dickerson left on the midnight boat for Vancouver, and on their return will reside at 2101 Chambers Street.

SILVER TEA

Forming themselves into a quartette of hostesses, Mesdames Stratton, Johnson, Skelern and Woodley arranged a silver tea on Friday afternoon, in aid of the children's Christmas party fund of the Women's Auxiliary to the Victoria Typographical Union, No. 201. The affair was accommodated in the new home of the auxiliary at the corner of Hill and Government Streets, and was an unqualified social success. The table was prettily decorated, rose colored chrysanthemums contained in a bowl forming the centerpiece with blending candles in silver holders on either side. While

Potters Are to Have New Kiln

Mrs. H. J. Hartnell, 1124 May Street, was hostess yesterday afternoon to the members and friends of the Altar Society of St. Andrew's Cathedral and friends at a most enjoyable silver tea, which was well attended. The rooms were decorated with golden chrysanthemums, and Mrs. Hartnell was assisted in receiving her guests by the members of the executive of the Altar Society, of which she is president. During the afternoon Mrs. Margaret Orute gave a very interesting account of the history of pottery making, the most primitive of the arts, and told of what has been done in Victoria during the past six years to foster the industry here. The efforts of herself and those who have been associated with her are now beginning to show most satisfactory results. The annual night classes, under the Department of Education, are well patronized, the attendance this year being particularly gratifying, and the progress being made through experimenting with various clays and glazes is interesting and encouraging.

The lack of a large community kiln, where potters might fire their wares, has been a serious drawback to rapid development, but this need is to be supplied through the generosity of Hon. Walter C. Nichol, in the very near future, and students will have every facility to bring their output to a satisfactory finish. Mrs. Grute showed several samples of her work and that of her students, cups, saucers, plates, cream jugs and sugar bowls, and two large vases being greatly admired. Questions and discussion followed and a lively interest was shown in the subject. Musical numbers, contributed by Miss Hartree and Miss Charliebois, who sang several charming solos, accompanied by Mrs. D. L. Macquarrie, and graceful dancing by Misses Leonore Fletcher and Helen Peden, completed the programme for the afternoon. Tea was served by a committee of the following ladies: Mrs. Lincham, Mrs. G. Hartnell, Mrs. Blair Reid, Mrs. Alexander and Mrs. Corcoran. The table, with its dainty appointments, was presided over by Mrs. M. Sweeney, who poured tea, and Mrs. J. D. Klasinger, who poured coffee.

Women's Institutes of Vancouver Island

SOUTH SAANICH

The South Saanich Women's Institute held a well-attended meeting in the rooms in Temperance Hall on Thursday, when Mrs. H. Lawrie presided, and Mrs. Styron read the minutes and correspondence. Among the latter was a letter from the Saanich Board of Trade thanking the members for the excellent supper arrangements made by the Institute at their masquerade dance. A discussion was held regarding what subject the members should study during winter classes. No subject was decided upon, however. It was decided to hold the annual Christmas store and entertainment in Temperance Hall on Tuesday evening, December 18. Mrs. Moshier was appointed to convene arrangements, and Mrs. Nimmo was appointed to take charge of the refreshments. These ladies will name their own committees and meet with the committee from the Farmers' Institute to make plans. The members will meet on December 12 to make the committee which will be one of the prizes at the country store. The Institute will purchase new material for the making of tea-cloths for their use at the hall, and members will meet at the home of Mrs. J. Moshier, Giles Crossroad, on Wednesday, November 21, to make these. A Christmas entertainment for the children of the district was discussed, and it was decided to hold this at the hall just before Christmas. Mrs. J. J. Young was appointed as general convenor. The next card party, on Saturday, November 24, will be convened by the directors. Mrs. and Mrs. H. Lawrie, and Mrs. Dora Young, Miss Lexie White, Miss May Tully, Mr. and Mrs. W. Carmichael, Mr. P. Quick, Mr. Brodie Quick, Mr. J. Nimmo, Mr. Cyril Conner.

SALE OF WORK IS VERY PROFITABLE

Over Thousand Dollars Made at Annual Affair of Alert Bay Auxiliary

ALERT BAY, Nov. 10 (By Mail).—The annual sale of work held in the Parish Hall by the Alert Bay Branch of the W.A., on Saturday, November 10, was an unprecedented success in every way. The hall was crowded with an eager throng waiting for the rector, Rev. F. Comley, to declare it open.

There were seven booths, each one representing a room of a house with articles for sale peculiar to itself, besides the Junior W.A. had the fishpond, the Indian Branch a sewing room and a tangle, and the ice cream booth, and the Girls' W.A. had the tea room. The living-room was the first stall, and here were all sorts of tea cloths, cushion covers, novelties for bridge tables, writing tables, pictures, china, etc. This stall made $91.00. Mrs. H. Piddock and Miss R. Long were in charge of this room. The kitchen was most delightful and up-to-date one. Dainty curtains, aprons, breakfast cloths and all sorts of kitchenware were here, and were eagerly bought up, as was proved by the sum of $67.45 realized. Mrs. Kennair and Mrs. J. Ward were conveners for this stall. Mrs. G. Lawson and Miss E. Quail came next in the pantry, full of the most delectable home-made cakes, pies, bread, candies, jams, etc. They turned in the sum of $61.45.

Next to the pantry came the nursery, in charge of two most capable-looking nurses, Miss Diben and Mrs. Millen. The white walls were covered with animals cut out of colored paper which gave it a real nursery look. There was a baby doll in a bassinet, and another in a bathtub by the fireplace, and all sorts of dainty clothing for babies and small children. This stall turned in $55.60.

The sunroom, under Mrs. Myers and Mrs. Ferriman, realized $52.25. Here were all sorts of plants, fruit and vegetables. The stall was prettily decorated in green and red and with hanging baskets. Mrs. F. Comley and Mrs. Watson had the most charming and comfortable bedroom, a pretty bedspread on the bed and all sorts of novelties on the dressing table, dainty pillow cases and towels, house dresses, etc. This was a most popular stall, and it turned in the sum of $153.28.

The ever-popular fish pond did a roaring trade for a while, and netted $51.30. The Junior W.A., under Miss M. Taylor, had charge of this. Much credit is due to the Indian Branch of the W.A., their sewing-room handed in $223.40, and from their large sale $31.35 was received. Mr. V. Briggs had a popular stall in the ice cream parlor, and he turned in $47.55. The Old Lady with 1,000 pockets caused much laughter and fun; everyone was eager to see what she had for them, and it was not long before she had made $31.35. The stall under the Girls' Branch, was well patronized, and realized about $35.

By 6 o'clock most of the articles were sold, and the hall was cleared for the concert which was to begin at 8 p.m. Every Branch, from the Little Helpers to the Senior Branch contributed some item.

A comic reel entitled "Kidnapped" was shown for the first time; then came a song by the Little Helpers, "Cock Robin"; the Girls' Branch gave a short sketch; the Juniors sang some delightful action songs; Mr. F. Comley sang "Little Mother o' Mine" and "I Know of Two Bright Eyes." The boys from the Industrial School gave a dumber drill, after which their instructor, Mr. Dudley, gave an Indian club exhibition. Rev. S. V. H. Redman, of the United Church, rendered a delightful piano solo, and Mrs. Redman sang a solo in her usual charming manner. "Come, Sing to Me" a duet, was nicely sung by Mrs. Comley and Miss McCarthy. Mr. Baker gave two Hawaiian selections. The last item on the programme was the most interesting one, some Indian dances in costume; the weird music and the beautiful blankets and head-dresses made an unforgettable scene.

The hall was packed to overflowing, and there were quite a number of disappointed people turned away. The sum of $154.16 was taken. The sale of 1928 shows the result of hard work from all the branches of the W.A. in Alert Bay. The sum of $1,039.72 has been turned in, and a little more is yet to come. The members wish to thank those who contributed to make this sale a success, not only the people of Alert Bay, but the stores who donated goods and the ladies who sent articles for sale.

Pioneer Women Are Guests of His Honor

Gathering of Crown Colony Day Figures Entertained at Government House—Aggregate Age of Seventy Ladies Over 6,000 Years

A memorable and unique gathering assembled at Government House yesterday afternoon, when some seventy of the pioneer women of Vancouver Island who figure in the pages of the Women's Canadian Club book of the name which has just come off the press, were entertained at tea by His Honor Lieutenant-Governor H. Randolph Bruce and Miss Mackenzie. Belles of long ago who played an active part in the early social life of the colony, the courageous women who took up the more rigorous part of pioneering in the forests or in remote spots along the coast, mingled and exchanged reminiscences which, if compiled, would make another fascinating volume to supplement that which is to receive its official launching at the Women's Canadian Club tea on Tuesday afternoon at the Empress Hotel.

No more animated group has ever met. From the very beginning a delightful informality prevailed. Conversation never flagged, and there was a continuous flow of wit and jest which showed that age is no synonym for dullness of spirits. His Honor and Miss Mackenzie, with Mr. H. Molson and Mr. A. M. D. Fairbairn in attendance, and assisted by the Women's Canadian Club executive, welcomed the ladies as they arrived. The reception took place in the ballroom, where masses of great pom-pom and Japanese chrysanthemums, white, gold, bronze, and mauve-pink, were massed in the southern embrasure and about the platform and Union Jacks were stacked over the wall lights.

Promptly after the reception His Honor led the guests out on the terrace where, for the next half-hour, cameras clicked and movie machines whirled while the historic group was photographed and re-photographed in "stall" and "animated" form to be preserved as a record of the occasion or sent across the Empire to be shown in theatres and elsewhere.

His Honor led a procession of the pioneer ladies for the purpose, Mrs. Carle, the oldest pioneer, on one arm; and on the other, Mrs. Mohun, another of the seniors among a group which represented only those women who were in Victoria in the Crown Colony days between 1843 and 1866.

After this they were escorted back inside, for tea, served in the dining-room, where special decorations of a very artistic character had been arranged in honor of the occasion. Spanning the tea table was a double arch of evergreen studded with brilliant colored lights and chrysanthemums. Surrounding this was an enormous crown, with lights representing the jewels, this all symbolizing the Crown Colony represented in the gathering of pioneer women.

Beneath a model of the bastion which occupied the northeast corner of the fort in Crown Colony days, spread under this was a map of the Bay Company flag, symbolizing the foundation of the whole history of Vancouver Island.

A ceremony of significant interest took place just before the guests left the dining-room when, at the invitation of His Honor, Mrs. Mohun stepped forward and cut the "birthday cake," decorated with the old colony crest and "V.I." in icing.

A MARVELOUS OCCASION Brief speeches by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, Mrs. Dennis Harris, and Mrs. Spargo, president of the Women's Canadian Club, followed. In his address of welcome His Honor characterized it as a "marvelous occasion," a tribute not only to the fortitude of the pioneer ladies who were present, but also a flattering commentary on the wonderful type of person who came to the colony in the early days and of the beautiful climate of Victoria which made such a gathering possible in the middle of November.

Amid much laughter His Honor noted that the aggregate age of the pioneer ladies present totaled over six thousand years! It gave him and his niece the greatest pleasure to welcome such an assemblage, one which was unique in the history of Government House, and in which he was proud to participate as host. His Honor expressed his indebtedness to the Women's Canadian Club, to whose active celebration was due. Also to the pioneer ladies, for without the latter neither he nor Miss Mackenzie, he maintained smilingly, would be there.

Mrs. Harris spoke on behalf of the pioneer ladies who were the guests of the afternoon, in expressing their thanks to their host and hostess. Very lightly she touched on the changes which had been effected in Victoria within the memory of most of those present, who could recall almost the beginnings of its history. The generation which they had reared, and which would follow them as the citizens of the future, she confidently hoped would carry out the highest aspirations of the pioneers who founded this part of the Empire.

In conclusion, Mrs. Harris led three cheers and a tiger for the Lieutenant-Governor and Miss Mackenzie, and this the four score ladies gave with gusto.

THANKS EXPRESSED Mrs. Spofford, on behalf of the Women's Canadian Club, as well as the pioneer women present, expressed appreciation of the gracious act of His Honor and Miss Mackenzie, in inviting them to Government House for what she preferred to characterize as a tea party. One of the gratifying features about the preparation of the club book was the pride with which all the ladies here prior to 1866 had admitted the fact. Each and all was proud that she had had a part in laying the foundations of the present Vancouver Island.

The programme was pleasantly supplemented by vocal solos by Mrs. D. B. McConnan, who sang "Songs My Mother Taught Me" and "Top o' the Mornin'" and Mrs. Arthur Dowell's singing of "Love's Old Sweet Song" and "Home, Sweet Home." Mrs. Paul Green acting as accompanist. Joining hands the gathering sang, in time-honored manner and with great fervor, "Auld Lang Syne," just before dispersing.

The list of pioneers invited was as follows: Miss Helen Kate Andrew, of Vancouver; Mrs. Frederick Appleton, Mrs. Walter Anderson; Mrs. Battersby, Mrs. Agnes Batchelor, of Vancouver; Mrs. Bolton, Mrs. Henry Bonnell, of Westholme, B.C.; Mrs. Julia Brown, of Nanaimo; Mrs. W. Crimp, Mrs. George Cassidy, of Ladysmith; Mrs. Cooper, of Lustron; Mrs. Charles Cameron, Mrs. G. Cuthbert, of Nanaimo.

MR. DOUGLAS WAS MANITOBA PIONEER

Well-Known Resident of Argyle, Man., Came Here to Settle in Retirement

Mr. James Douglas, McKenzie Avenue, Saanich, who passed away on Friday, was a picturesque pioneer of the early days in Manitoba, stern and rugged, firm in principle, yet with a disposition to help in everything for the public good. Born in Perthshire, Scotland, in 1855, Mr. Douglas came to Canada when over twenty years of age. He settled on the land and farmed successfully at Argyle, Man., for thirty-seven years. He devoted much of his time to the services of the public, being councillor of Woodlands Municipality for many years, and was reeve for two years.

After he retired from active work, he accompanied by his daughter, made a trip to Scotland; returning to Canada he decided to make Victoria his home. Settling in Saanich he soon began to take an interest in public work, and was ultimately connected with Lake Hill Community Centre, of which he was president for two years. During that time the new public building on North Quadra were built. He will be greatly missed by the people in the community. He has left three daughters, Miss Edith Douglas, the family home; Mrs. A. E. Clark, Portland, Ore., and Mrs. G. K. Sutherland, Roseville, Sask., and one son, Mr. James D. Douglas, Port Wile, Man. Also a brother in Scotland. The remains were forwarded yesterday to Argyle, Man., where interment will be made in the family plot.

A.Y.P.A. BIBLE CLASS ENTERTAINS

At the concert given in the Sunday school auditorium of St. John's Church by the A.Y.P.A. Bible class, a large audience, which taxed the seating capacity of the hall to its utmost, was present and thoroughly enjoyed the excellent programme, which had been arranged for the occasion, which included the following items: Pianoforte solo, Miss P. Martin; tenor solo, Mr. Smith; bass solo, Mr. French, accompanied by Miss Moore; duet, Misses K. Smith and M. Jeeves; autoharp solo, Miss S. Sloney.

A short two-act comedy, entitled "Doctor Cure-All," was the concluding number. This was exceedingly well acted by the members of the cast, which included Messrs. J. Lair, E. Boss and J. Archer, and Misses K. Smith, M. Jeeves, H. Bowden, M. Turner, M. Montaldi, C. Jeeves, F. Merton, F. Webb, J. Newcombe and W. Pitman.

Correctness and Style

"Style" in dress, though easily recognizable, is hard to define. Correctness is part of the secret and of importance also is the quality of the fabric or material used. We all know that the best is the cheapest where clothes are concerned, and the highest quality pays big dividends in long life. Such will remain stylish and in good shape long after cheaper goods are worn out.

VICTORIA CUBS TO OPEN AT VANCOUVER TOMORROW

All Players Primed For Initial Coast Fixture With Lions

Manager Joe Smith and Squad Will Leave on Monday's Boat for Terminal City—Season Will Start Here Tuesday

With every man on his team, excepting the injured Cliff O'Meara, in fighting trim and tuned to mid-season form, Manager Joe Smith will lead his Victoria Cubs against Vancouver Lions tomorrow night at Vancouver for the opening clash of the newly-formed Pacific Coast Hockey League. The steel blade artists will leave on Monday afternoon for the Terminal City, and a large number of local fans are going over for the opener.

BILL BORLAND

Last night the team went through a light workout, and every man was hitting a fast pace. There are no weak spots, and the local outfit should give the Mainlanders a tough struggle.

All players will make the trip, but it is practically certain that O'Meara will not take the ice. The personnel of the Cubs follows:

Goal, Earl Robertson; defence, Bill Borland, Oliver Redpath and Jack Kenny; forwards, Runge, Downie, Leacock, Kelly, Evans and O'Meara.

WELL FORTIFIED
There will be no lack of material for any position on the attacking line. Manager Joe Smith has three men he can fit into either position. At left wing he can use Kelly, Runge or Leacock, while Downie, O'Meara or Kelly can hold down the right wing position. Evans, Runge and Downie can fit into the pivot job.

All these players have worked out at the various positions during the practices, and go good together.

O'Meara will be a sure starter here Tuesday night. His broken cheek bone has been healing rapidly, and the club doctor figures it will be O.K. by Tuesday.

Captain Bill Borland looks for big things from his squad, and after last night's practice was well satisfied with his squad.

Tomorrow's game will be broadcast over CNRV.

VANCOUVER STRONG
VANCOUVER, Nov. 17.—Somers at centre, Sanderson on left wing, and Bill Phillips holding down the right side of the forward line seems to be the way Vancouver Lions will start Monday night against the Victoria Cubs. Doug Brennan and Joe Jerva start on the defence, unless, perhaps, the elusive Mr. Houghs shows up and demonstrates that he is a better hockey player than the rest of them.

Chuck Dunn, Bob Cummings and Sammy McAdam will form the relief forward line. Jimmy Arnot will get the relief defence role. A young fellow from Trail, Percy Jackson, will guard the net.

Wins Historic Race Again

THE four-mile race for the Newmarket Town Plate, a horse race established in 1666, and one of the oldest races in England, was won this year by Miss Iris Rickaby. This is the second time Miss Rickaby has won this event.

hockey on the Coast. President Frank A. Patrick released the following as interpretative of the league's ambitions and desires:

"This week marks the revival of the professional ice hockey on the Pacific Coast, with games in Vancouver, Victoria, Portland and Seattle, after a lapse of two years."

"That many thousands will welcome the return of the speediest and most exciting of sports is quite evident from the interest manifest on all sides. The league resumes under the happiest auspices—artificial ice, splendid arenas and a climate that is neither too hot nor too cold for enjoyment of the games."

"The main function of the new league will be to provide competition. Interesting competition, in this the most thrilling game of all the array of winter sports. Nor will the league aim to create interesting competition alone. Clean sport, as well, will be one of the principles in the operation of the new loop."

FRIENDLY EFFORTS
"No effort will be made to stir up enmity between cities or countries. On the contrary, efforts will be directed to conduct the games in such a manner that each city may have reason to feel justly proud of its respective team."

"While there is no doubt that keen competition will produce rivalry, it is to be hoped that the competitors will not lose sight of the principles of true sportsmanship whether in defeat or victory, and that they will prove not only good winners, but graceful losers."

"With this former record in view, it will be the chief aim of the new Coast league to further uphold these time-honored traditions, both on the ice and among the respective clubs. Happy indeed will be the management if these ideals of fostering the game of hockey can be upheld to the satisfaction of players and public."

Speedy Growth May Necessitate Forming Of New Hockey Loop

Ice Game Spreading Like Wildfire Across Both Continents and in the Near Future New Leagues Will Be Started to House Players

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Eight years ago the National Hockey League consisted of four clubs, the Ottawa Senators, the Toronto St. Pats, the Canadiens and the Hamilton club. In the season which is just opening ten teams will toe the mark. The National League, from a compact little organization which began its season just before Christmas and played the last scheduled game around March 1, has developed until it can develop no more. Ten clubs are the limit. More would be unwieldy, and if hockey continues to grow another major loop will become imperative.

Tracing the growth of hockey through the National League shows beyond dispute how the ice game is gaining in popularity. Yet an investigation along other lines reveals a growth far more remarkable and astonishing. A dip into minor league hockey is the proper place to ascertain the spread of the ice surface for this year will see three strong circuits operating, all banded together under organized hockey working in accordance with each other under quite the same system that exists in the baseball world.

GAME SPREADING FAST
Of course, there were always minor leagues in Canada, and for that matter the Dominion can be left out of this discussion. It is south of the Great Lakes where hockey is spreading like wildfire, and if you doubt it just ponder over the fact that the crash of the sticks will be heard this season from Tulsa, Oklahoma, to Seattle, and in the million dollar class has been erected in Tulsa, and the city will be represented in the Western American League, one of the three big minor leagues.

On this circuit will be found, besides Tulsa, St. Louis, Kansas City, Minneapolis, Duluth and St. Paul.

IMPORTANT MINOR LOOPS
The two other minor leagues of importance are the Canadian Professional League and the Canadian-American League. The latter is closest to home, for it embraces New Haven, the Americans' farm, and Springfield, which is used as a developing ground. This league will start off the season with a member in the Newark club, which will be managed by Sprague Cleg-horn, one of the best defence men of all time, and last year's assistant to Art Ross, manager of the Boston Bruins. The Newark arena will not be ready for the opening of the season, but it is hoped that the latter part of the schedule may be played in the Jersey metropolis.

This circuit is rounded out by Providence, Philadelphia and the Boston Tigers, who do very good business in the Hub when the Bruins are not fighting their battles in the National League.

The Canadian Professional League also is going to start its season in slightly revised form, which is just another indication that hockey is skidding all over the country. Buffalo is the new member on the loop, and like Newark, will be forced to play its home games on foreign ice. In all likelihood the Buffalo team will make its headquarters in Fort Erie, but next season a monster arena will be ready, and if hockey catches on as anticipated, a major league franchise also will be sought.

Supporting two teams may sound rather ambitious for Buffalo, yet Detroit is doing it right now, and in its area are actually three hockey clubs. Detroit is represented in the National and Canadian Professional Leagues, while just across the river Windsor has a team in the latter circuit. Then there is Hamilton, Kitchener, Niagara Falls and London, all Canadian towns, completing this league.

CLEVELAND MAY PURCHASE TWO FRISCO SEALS

Indians Angling to Get Hold of Averill and Jolley, Two Hard-Hitting Outfielders

MILJUS EXPECTED TO BE EXCHANGED

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—It would not surprise American League club owners were the Cleveland team to announce the purchase of Earl Averill and Smead Jolley, of the San Francisco Seals. A short time ago it was intimated that the Cleveland Club owners were about ready to pay a record price for an outfielder, the greatest group of sluggers playing on a minor league team. The identity was not hard to guess, as the leading trio of sluggers is owned by San Francisco.

The purchase of Roy Johnson from the Frisco club by Detroit smashed the ambitious aims of the Cleveland owners, the Tiger magnates stepping in and buying Johnson while Cleveland haggled over letting John Miljus go West to round out the deal.

Billy Evans, it is reported, is going to California to try and put through the rest of the deal, that of lining up Jolley and Averill for the Indians.

WANT SLUGGERS
Cleveland is eager to get thumpers who can drive the ball against the right field wall and one or two who can ride it over the barrier now and then. Averill and Jolley can do that. It will take a lot of coin to get this pair, but the sharp declare they will be worth it to the Indians.

Cleveland is not letting any sluggers slip through by the waiver route. They want hard-hitting outfielders and may spring a trade with Washington for Bigelow, who thrilled the Southern League last season with his batting.

The Washingtons asked waivers on Bigelow recently and Cleveland promptly put in a claim for him. Washington withdrew the waivers and let it become known that the owner was prepared to talk trade for Bigelow and others of the flock who may go better with some other team.

The Indians have a pretty good battery that may interest someone long on outfielders. The battery is Uhl and Autry. Both are on the market and some seem to think that they may be seen in Yankee uniforms next season.

PERCY WILLIAMS TO RUN IN N.Y.
Canadian Olympic Sprint Sensation Will Take Part in Millrose Meet Early Next Year

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Percy Williams, of Vancouver, whose double sprint victory in the Amsterdam Olympics was the sensation of the meet, will come to New York this winter to the Millrose A.A. meet, according to a report current here.

John G. Anderson, president of the Millrose A.A., says that he has not received Williams' acceptance of an invitation to compete, but it is said that he will accept.

The meet takes place the first Thursday in February.

According to Ellwood Jones, director of the Canadian National Exhibition, who usually manages the Canadian entry in the Millrose meet, both Williams and Jimmy Ball, of Winnipeg, runner-up to Ray Barbuti, for the Olympic 400-metre title, will be members of the Canadian quartette that will race a picked American four in an international relay at the Millrose meet. The actual distance of the relay has not yet been determined.

Dr. Willing Wins Oregon Open Golf Championship

Veteran Portland Amateur Heads Fast Field by One Stroke—Johnny Farrell Finishes Second and Abe Espinosa Third

PORTLAND, Nov. 17.—Dr. O. F. Willing, of the Waverley Country Club, Portland, added the Oregon $5,000 open tournament to his list of stellar golf performances today when he sank a 32-foot putt on the last green for a total of 286 for the seventy-two-hole tournament.

The Portland amateur placed ahead of Johnny Farrell, United States open champion, who scored 296 for the seventy-two holes. Willing's sensational putt gave him the edge over Farrell, who had shot better than par on the last round.

Heavy fog, which obscured the course, halted the golfers in the morning round, and played havoc with scores. Willing, however, overcame this handicap and shot a 78 for the morning round, coming back with a 73 in the afternoon. Farrell closed the morning session with a 78, and then went around in 71 one under par.

Abe Espinosa, Chicago professional, who had led the field in the first two days, lost his chance for the title by scoring a 78 in the morning round and a 74 in the afternoon, with 298 for the seventy-two holes.

Willing now holds, in addition to his title won today, the Pacific Northwest Amateur and the Pacific Northwest Open championships.

Patrick Considering Enforcing Many New Hockey Regulations

Vancouver Mogul Always Fiddling With Rules Here and There to Make Hockey Interesting From Spectators' Viewpoint

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—According to Alfred Dayton, Frank Patrick, brother of Lester Patrick, is trying to establish a hockey league on the Pacific Coast. A dozen years ago the Patrick brothers trouped into the Virgin territory of the Pacific Coast and set up the Western League. They brought with them hockey as it had been played in Eastern Canada for years, but as the seasons rolled by they made many changes in the game. Some of these were retained after a thorough trial, others were tossed out and all this experimenting was closely watched by the moguls of the National League. They devised the play-off system, incorporated the forward pass into the hockey rules and made other changes that are part and parcel of hockey as it is played today in professional circles. Of course everything they attempted was not successful, but it is doubtful if any two men had more to do with moulding hockey into its present form.

STILL TRYING
But successful or unsuccessful in their efforts, they kept trying to make hockey an ideal sport from a spectator's standpoint. And today Frank Patrick is still trying, fiddling here and there with the rules even though he is playing a lone hand with his brother some three thousand miles away.

As he prepares to open his season on the west coast, he has altered the rules a bit once more, and whether you agree with them or not, the views of this hockey progressive are worth recounting.

Of chief interest is a change Patrick is making concerning a four committed just in front of the net.

WANDERERS WIN FROM EX-HIGH FIFTEEN, 6 TO 0

Oak Bay Rugby Squad Chalk Up Well-Deserved Victory in Intermediate League

UNIVERSITY SCHOOL DEFEAT SCOTTISH

The Oak Bay Wanderers won a hard-fought intermediate Rugby fixture from the Ex-High fifteen yesterday afternoon at the Victoria High School grounds by a 6-0 score.

The Wanderers kicked off, and by good passing kept the ball in their opponents' territory for the opening minutes. The Oak Bay boys pressed the High's defensive quarters hard, but only for the clever work of the backfield held the Wanderers from crossing the touchline. Time after time the High's backfield relieved the situation by their heavy defensive tactics. The game had been only a few minutes old when Knight, of the Wanderers, was injured and forced to retire from further play.

Counting the Ex-High, led his men to the Wanderers' twenty-five yard line and looked as if they were going to break through, but the whistle ended their hostilities for the time being. However, the ex-students kept up their offensive onslaught, and chiefly through kick-and-run tactics, carried the ball through the field goal line. Some well-placed kicks by the Bays' three-quarters carried the play to midfield. From mid-field the Wanderers' forwards forced the play to within sight of their opponents' goal line, and Robson, last half man, scooped up the leather and raced for the line for the opening score. The kick for extra points failed.

For some time after the teams fought around midfield, but neither side gained much ground. The Wanderers followed up under one of his high punts, recovered the ball and crashed through the Ex-High's wall for the second try of the game. Before the final whistle was tooted, the game ended with the Ex-High trying desperately to break into the score column. D. Wilson refereed, and the teams were:

Wanderers—Davis, Knight, Eagle, De Blaquiere, Dayton, Robson, Sherwood, Backler, Jones, Drake, Cooper and Dunn.

Ex-High—Boorman, Gaunt, Dunn, Ranley, Colgate, Conerton, Mayes, Todd, Petterson, and others.

Thorpe, McConnell, Dowsewell and Hood.

OVERWHELMING WIN
Playing a winning game from the start to the finish, the University School defeated the 15th Canadian Scottish in an intermediate Rugby fixture yesterday afternoon on their home lot by the overwhelming score of 63-0.

From the minute the university lads kicked off it was evident that the score was going to be one-sided. One minute after the play commenced Gardner went over for a try that Tisdall converted. Gardner scooped up the leather after the kick-off and raced the length of the field for the second try, which Tisdall again converted. Gann, of the Scottish, made a break, but was pulled down by Mortimer, who carried the play to the soldiers' end. Jackson went over for the third try after a long run. The kick for extra points was missed. Tisdall, Coleman and Gardner added tries in quick succession. Coleman's try was converted by Tisdall. Mortimer, of the school, weaved his way through the Scottish defence for his second try, while Brinkley, scrum half, made a beautiful run and crossed the line once more. At half-time the score stood 27-0.

Immediately after the interval, Gardner raced through the entire Scottish team and scored, and Tisdall continued his record and converted. Then Mercer ran half the length of the field and passed to Gardner, who went over. Tisdall converted. Coleman took another turn at the Scottish line, and broke through after a sixty-yard run, and passed to Le Marquand near the touch line, who scored. Fitz was the next one to get through for the school, and again Tisdall added the points. Coleman, Gardner, two tries, and Le Marquand added tries.

before the whistle. Two of the scores were converted by Tisdall. Sinions refereed and the teams were:

University School—Pearce, White, Senkler, Hayward, T. Cornwall, Brinkley, Tisdall, Coleman, Gardner, Le Marquand, Mercer, Fitz and Townsend.
15th Canadian Scottish—Christie, Spencer, Macdonald, Braidwood, Muller, Gann, Jackson, Taylor, King, Morley, W. Sturrock, E. Sturrock, Campbell, Crabtree and Grant.

CAPITALS WIN FROM C.P.S. FROM 15-0

Winners Take Lead in Men's Senior "A" Division—Sons of Canada Defeat V.M.D.

FIDELIS OUTCLASS RED BIRDS, 23-12

The Capitals took undisputed lead in the men's Senior "A" division in the City Basketball League last evening at the Y.M.C.A. Gymnasium when they overcame their bitter opponents, the C.P.S., by a 32-17 score.

The game started at a slow pace, with both squads playing careful basketball. The Capitals soon took the opening points by dropping in a pretty basket from close under the hoop. The score soon stood 7-0.

In the Capitals' favor, McKenzie tossed in a free throw. Boyd made three shots, and Forbes a field goal. Fagenburg registered the lumbermen's first points with a field goal, and Skillings soon followed with a beautiful basket. Both sides kept on dropping in baskets and when half-time was reached the scoreboard read: Capitals, 19; C.P.S., 13.

Hocking opened the second period with a basket, followed closely by Willoughby of the Capitals. McKenzie and Boyd chalked up two points each, in rapid succession, and "Stew" Skillings, dropped in a basket. Hocking, dropped in a basket, and a little speedier, and made things interesting from a spectator's standpoint. However, the winners forged ahead steadily, chiefly through field goals by Boyd and Willoughby.

The game ended with the C.P.S. fighting hard to come through with a victory. Hocking was the most conspicuous man on the floor, with his shooting, passing and clever dribbling.

Later it was learned that the Fiddler had been painted on the nose and forelegs to resemble the horse registered under that name. But he really was a Western campaigner which bore the name of Hiram Johnson and had fallen into the hands of a band of turf sharks.

The chief attraction at a recent industrial exhibition at Munich, Germany, was the drinking of milk through straws, which is a novelty there.

SONS COME THROUGH
In the opening game, the Sons of Canada handed the V.M.D. its first senior defeat of the season in the men's senior "A" division. The play of Gordie Sward, husky center man for the Sons, was the cause of the netted try men's downfall, as he fought tough neck and neck, and as time was drawing near, and only for Sward breaking away from his check and losing in baskets from difficult angles, the V.M.D. might have registered a win. Brynjolfsson played a good game for the winners and was second high man with four points. Bill Blair, Eddie Viggers and Bert Marchant worked hard for the Sons. Alan LeMarquand refereed and the teams were:

Sons—J. Taylor, C. Nicol, B. Dempster, K. Darbyshire, P. Partington, O. Sward (12), H. Brynjolfsson (4), J. Taylor (3), B. Marchant (1), B. Crombie, G. Wragg, T. Mitchell.

FIDELIS WIN
Another team was administered its initial defeat of the year when the Fiddlers defeated the Red Birds in the ladies "B" division by 23-12.

"Torchy" Bailey and Bona Macmurchie were chiefly responsible for their opponents' first defeat. "Torchy" Bailey, who has been going like a house on fire, again led her team with nine points, while Bona Macmurchie was a close second with one point less. Bona Macmurchie and Torrie Rennie were the bright lights for the Birds with four and six points respectively. Alan LeMarquand refereed and the teams were:

Fidels—Crawford (2), D. Bailey, Brackenridge, Philbrook, Freeman (2), Foulster (2), B. Macmurchie (8).

Red Birds—E. Maynard (4), T. Rennie (6), B. Peden, A. Dean, B. Boyce (2), D. Holder, D. Lea.

With the Trundlers
By KING PIN

Another week rolling the balls and spinning the pins has passed, and still the race for honors in the Pivvin League is an interesting affair. One team, the Arcades, has slipped from the top berth and left the Dynamites and Quinnettes as joint occupants of this proud position, but there is still time for the Arcades to get back ere the schedule of the first half is completed.

Eric Whitehead and his Canadian National Railway trundlers are doing just what King Pin said a few weeks ago. They are gradually climbing, and today are perched relatively in second berth. In company with the Colonist Typo.

These teams are billed to clash on the Arcade Alleys next week, and if the writer is not mistaken, it will be a merry battle. If the C.N.R. keep up their consistent rolling they should take two games.

Les Fox, the speed artist of five-pin bowling and skipper of the Times Scribbles, set two new marks for the boys to shoot at last week when he toppled 245 in one game and 600 for an aggregate score in three games. Fox is rapidly developing into one of the best bowlers in the new loop. Keep up the good work, Les. King Pin would be delighted to see you break your own records.

Leonard Tait Upheld By B.C. Amateur Body In Playing Gravlin

President of Provincial Simon-Pures Gets Backing of Delegates in Allowing Golf Pro to Play Baseball

VANCOUVER, B.C., Nov. 17.—Although the storms of a local controversy divided the executive of the British Columbia branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada in annual session this afternoon, the annual meeting decided to continue the battle for the provincial board's famous cause, the right of a professional in one sport to play an amateur in another. This year, Bert Davidson, who was elected president, will carry the fight in the annual meeting of the national body next month at Port Arthur.

The board meeting was marked by violent verbal battles, however, when the famous Walter Gravlin case, which was first discussed in 1920, was forced to an issue by the Victoria local board. That body at its annual meeting suspended operations because the provincial president, Leonard Tait, gave permission to Walter Gravlin, golf instructor, to participate in two amateur baseball games after the local board there had refused a similar request.

ACTION CONFIRMED
The retiring president's action was confirmed by a vote of twelve to nine, and the matter was referred to the annual meeting of the national body, but not before the delegate from Victoria, Arthur Manson, in a long verbal tirade against Mr. Tait had hurled charges of bohemianism and high-handed conduct. Another possible cause for contention was removed when the board appointed a committee of Messrs. C. M. Plant, Andy Gard, Bert Davidson, John Mulder and Arthur Manson, which will meet a similar committee from the British Columbia Amateur Baseball Association regarding the playing of teams of unregistered players from the United States.

The provincial body will also request of the national organization that the 1930 meeting of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada be held here, and that the Olympic trials of 1932 be granted to Vancouver. Track and field championships for next year were awarded to this city, and the boxing championships went to Victoria providing the Island city's local board is reorganized.

It was in the annual report that Arthur Manson told of the decision of the Victoria local board to elect no new officers pending the settlement of the Gravlin case, and after the resolution confirming the president's attitude had been passed, he declared that no further action could be taken by officials of the Island branch.

WANTS ATHLETES PROTECTED
In a formal resolution, Dr. J. O. Davidson proposed, however, that the case be further considered by the local board there and that the athletes implicated be not penalized no matter what action was taken by the Canadian Union.

Before the vote was taken, Mr. Manson pleaded for the "constitution," made many references to the "rules and regulations," and asked what use was an amateur card if the president could give permission to a professional to play with amateurs. Mr. Mulder declared that it was not the place of the president or any official to interpret the rules, but to abide by them because he thought it was a "tempest in a teapot."

Mural paintings believed to be hundreds of years old were recently found in a house at Reading, England.

RHEUMATISM
Minard's Liniment
"The Great White Liniment"
Bert Davidson remarked sarcastically "that he didn't know anything about golf, but he hardly thought a golf professional could be called an athlete." "I suppose," replied Mr. Manson, "murder, to prove the unreasonableness of the criminal code, would be justified, then. The president's action is in the same category."

"But murder," interjected Mr. C. M. Plant, "in self-defence is always justified."

Other officers elected in addition to Mr. Davidson were:

Second vice-president, Matt Hunter, Victoria; secretary-treasurer, Andy G. Gard, Governors—J. Haker, Vancouver; George T. Winter, Vancouver; G. A. McConaghy, A. R. Dingman, Vancouver; Alexander Courtney, New Westminster; Dr. J. H. Bricker, Vancouver, and Leonard S. Tait, retiring president; provincial registrar, R. T. Elson.

Mural paintings believed to be hundreds of years old were recently found in a house at Reading, England.

"BARBERRY BUSH"

One Girl's Marriage Problems
By KATHLEEN NORRIS

The guest was named Schofield; Barbara never heard him called anything else and never knew whether it was a first or last name. She had heard the name often; he was one of the Bohemian group in San Francisco. He was a small, weedy man of perhaps forty, a poet in a small way, himself, and foremost among Barry's admirers. He had come by a coincidence to Cottowood on this same Monday morning in the hope of getting in touch with Barry du Spin. He proved a comfortable and informal guest; Barbara's first apologies were thrown away on him as even Barbara perceived. He helped intelligently in the kitchen and made an instant conquest of the baby. "Are you a married man, Mr. Schofield?" "Yes, ma'am. I've got to call this girl 'Barbara.' Barry. Old enough to be her father!" "I wish you would," Barbara invited him cordially. "Yes, ma'am, I'm a married man and I have four of these people," Schofield indicated the baby, sitting serenely in his arms. "I've got a married son," he admitted, "and a girl in college. The little ones, two girls of sixteen and four, are with their mother." My wife," he added casually, "hasn't lived with me for ten years. She has a position in a library in Berkeley. She was a great woman," he finished thoughtfully, "for dusting and having meals on time! My Lord, what that woman could do with a broom and a bucket of suds!" Barry laughed joyfully, and Barbara, although not without a secret impulse of sympathy with the unknown Mrs. Schofield, laughed, too. Schofield stayed with them for four days, and they were happy days for every one. He made no secret of his admiration for Barbara as well as for Barry; he found the old hacienda a place of enchantment, and with his friendly talk and companionable help the housework seemed nothing and the hours flew. Even Barbara's clear vision was blurred by his eager, convincing attitude, and it was not until the last day that she appreciated fully that it was really to Schofield that the owed Barry's complete change of attitude toward any regular work in Cottowood. To Schofield, Barry du Spin was the great poet of the century, the new Keats, Schofield pointed out to husband and wife that for Barry, the unknown, unheralded Westerner,

CHANCE DEPENDS ON GUARANTEE

Australian Debaters May Be Heard
Providing Financial Assistance
Is Forthcoming

The Provincial Civil Service Debating Club has been informed that two debaters from the University of Sydney, Australia, will tour North America in an attempt to raise money for the club. The debaters will come to Victoria between the middle of January and February. It will, however, be necessary to guarantee a sum of one hundred and fifty dollars before this can be managed. The Provincial Civil Service Club is not in a position to guarantee this, and, unless some other debating club in the city can be induced to do so, the opportunity of hearing these Australian debaters here will be lost; this will be very regrettable, as it is the first occasion on which an Australian debating team has visited Canada, and the men who are being sent are of the very highest calibre. It is, therefore, much to be hoped that the debating clubs in Victoria will become sufficiently interested in the matter to act quickly in securing a debate, as the Civil Service Club has just received a telegram stating that only one more debate is needed to complete the tour. If any clubs or associations can see their way clear to undertake this debate, either by themselves, or jointly, it is trusted that they will communicate immediately with the secretary of the Provincial Civil Service Debating Club, Parliament Buildings.

Concurrent Disinfection Is Important

So many inquiries have been made concerning the disinfection of a room or house after a case of communicable disease has occurred, that the matter is chosen for the subject of this article.

The objective of disinfection is to destroy the germs which cause disease. Disease germs grow only inside the human or animal body. They leave the body of the patient in the discharges and secretions of the body. Once outside of the body, the germs die off—most of them very quickly. Drying and sunlight are nature's methods of destroying these enemies. Dark, damp corners delay nature's action.

Concurrent disinfection is the term used to mean disinfection that is carried on during a disease. It aims, by prompt disinfection of the body discharges and secretions, to destroy the disease germs they contain before there is any chance of their coming in contact with some well person. The eating utensils are disinfected to destroy the germs in the saliva that is left on cups, spoons, etc., by the diseased person. Concurrent disinfection is most important and must be thoroughly carried out until the patient has recovered.

Terminal disinfection is the term used to mean the disinfection after recovery of the patient. If concurrent disinfection has been properly observed, there is no need of terminal disinfection, because all the secretions will have been looked after. This is the point which needs to be clearly understood; proper care during disease prevents its spread. To try and kill off a few germs that may have survived in a room, after the recovery of a patient, is a matter of practically no importance compared with the need for destruction of the millions of germs given off during the course of the disease.

Terminal disinfection has been discontinued in many cities, and all attention given to concurrent disinfection.

Questions concerning health, addressed to the Canadian Medical Association, at 8 o'clock in the practice room at the Armistice, Bay Street. A report will be received from the secretary-treasurer, and the election of officers for the ensuing year will be conducted.

Boys' Pipe Band

The annual meeting of the Victoria Boys' Pipe Band will be held on Thursday at 8 o'clock in the practice room at the Armistice, Bay Street. A report will be received from the secretary-treasurer, and the election of officers for the ensuing year will be conducted.

The labor situation in Victoria this year has been considerably relieved by the work in progress in reconditioning the Dune at Jordan River. The B.C. The peak month was reached in August, when the payroll amounted to the sum of $26,500, when between 160 and 170 extra men were employed.

WILL CONGRESS VISIT CANADA

English Paper Suggests Next Meeting of Church Congress Be Held in One of Overseas Dominions

MAY MEET IN TORONTO IN 1929

"There is a chance," says The Canadian Churchman in its last issue, "that the next Church Congress of the Anglican Church may be held in Canada." It appears that this year's Congress which was held at Cheltenham and which received considerable publicity on account of the attempt of Lord Halifax and others to prevent the appearance upon the programme of Dr. Major, who is a modernist, adjoined without naming the place for its successor.

Commenting on this, The Guardian, one of the English Anglican papers, asks: "Would it be an extravagant suggestion that in the near future the Congress should venture overseas? The World Call is still ringing in our ears, and our responsibilities to our own people in the Dominions are constantly being urged. A Church Congress at, say Toronto, would make a bold appeal to the imagination of churchmen at home and in Canada. Our suggestion may find warrant in the example set by the British Association a few years ago when its meetings were held in Winnipeg." Following up the suggestion of its English contemporary, The Canadian Churchman calls attention to the projected visit next June of 1,200 representatives of the Free Churches of Britain, who will be the guests for ten days of the United Church of Canada. This is a sequel to the visit last Summer to New England of a similar company of Congregationalists to their religious conferees in the United States. The interchange of teachers that is effected by the National Council of Education of Canada is an example of the benefits of such an interchange.

As has been mentioned on this page, there is a likelihood that the annual meeting of the executive heads of the Church of England in Canada will meet in Vancouver near the time of the prospective opening of the new cathedral here. The presence of a deputation from the Church Congress at this notable occasion would still further widen its influence and bring added heart to the members of this diocese. The Canadian Churchman closes its reference with this wish, "We trust that very soon the invitation will be speeding to England inviting the next Congress to assemble in our midst."

PARISH BULLETINS FEATURE OF DIOCESE

Victoria Correspondent of Canadian Churchman Gives News of Parish Papers

That monthly or weekly bulletins are being used in a number of the parishes of the Diocese of Victoria for the promotion of parish work and interest is reported in a Victoria letter in The Canadian Churchman. Preference is made to the St. Paul's Church News, of Nanaimo, published monthly by the rector, Rev. H. V. Hitchcock, and to the frequent issue of Holy Trinity Parish Bulletin, by Rev. E. J. Buchanan, vicar of Campbell. The Messenger is a monthly bulletin that circulates around the parishes and missions of Courtenay, Sandwick, Merville, Grantham and Dove Creek. The pioneer, the correspondent writes, of parish bulletins in the diocese is The Cathedral Leaf, which appeared first in April, 1917, the editor, which is Dean Quinlan. Daily meditations are a regular feature of this weekly church medium.

Clerical changes mentioned in the above letter includes the appointment of Rev. R. D. Porter, vicar of Gulf Islands parish, to take charge of the parishes of Alberni and Port Alberni. Rev. H. B. Payne has succeeded Rev. H. B. Allen as acting vicar of Colwood and Langford. Rev. Ernest M. Cooke, of Westport, England, is serving as locum tenens at Ladysmith.

REV. A. O. THOMSON TO TAKE CHARGE FOR FEW WEEKS

Divine service will be conducted at the Tillamook Road Presbyterian Church, the Gorge, at 11 o'clock, and at the Eskine Presbyterian Church, corner of Harriet and Luntine Roads, at 7 o'clock. Rev. A. O. Thomson will conduct the services. ## HONAN WORK DESCRIBED TO COLUMBIA W.A.

Annual Diocesan Meeting Will Probably Be Held Jan. 16 or 23, Members of Board Are Told

COAST MISSION NEEDS COMFORTS

Miss Masters, in speaking to the members of Columbia W. A., at their board meeting, held in the Memorial Hall on Friday evening, described Honan as a very beautiful Province, treeless, and with very little herbage, owing to the sandy soil, which produces sand or dust storms, sometimes of a very violent nature, especially in the parts near the Gobi Desert. The Yellow River, which is termed the River of Sorrows, on account of its destructive floods, is the great highway through the Province, and produces fertility along its banks. The climate is good with plenty of sunshine, and only moderate, no great extremes of heat and cold.

Tomorrow night, at 8 o'clock, a modern Chinese schoolgirl, with graceful flowing skirts and a clever arrangement of the bodice with colored trimmings, and spoke of the happy life of the pupils of St. Mary's School, which was founded by Bishop White, thirteen years ago, and has been an influence in the lives of the children of the Province. The difference that Christianity has made in the lives of women and girls was emphasized by the speaker, and education has been a great developing force.

Christian Chinese women are now undertaking the life of the Women's Missionary Service League, which began under another name in 1921, and consolidated all the Chinese teaching and leadership in the Province into one organization. The address of the Chinese President, Mrs. Do, which Miss Masters presided over, was a model of inspiring Christian teaching and leadership, given at their recent triennial meeting in Canton.

The members have now undertaken missionary obligations in their own Province, and have carried on the work under the greatest difficulties and hardships since the missionaries were ordered to leave the Province.

Bishop White and his co-workers received an enthusiastic welcome upon his return to his diocese, and Miss Masters is looking forward to returning to St. Mary's, early in next year.

Expressing thanks to Miss Masters for her deeply interesting and instructive address, Mrs. Dickson, diocesan president, urged the members to keep in mind the object of having her speak at their meetings during the next two weeks.

COAST MISSION

By a fortunate coincidence the Rev. W. Govier, priest on the St. Columba was in the city on Friday, and attended the board meeting for the purpose of telling of his work, which was heard with much interest by all present. He described the many calls for aid to which the staff respond, carrying medical care or priestly service or reading matter to isolated homes, and to logging camps. The children are of special interest to Mr. Govier, and he is quick to respond to kindness and sympathy.

There is a great need for better education of the Indian women on the Reserves, of which he has sight in his large district. The Medicine Man is still a powerful menace and superstition prevails, but through the missionaries the best means of reform. The Diocesan Dorcas Secretary, Mrs. Christie, appealed for gifts for use in Mr. Govier's work during the Christmas season, and asked that all articles for the Columbia Coast Mission and for the bales, Christmas cheer and money be sent to her home, 604 Linden Avenue, before December 4, as all have to be sent away on December 8.

The Diocesan Literature Secretary, Mrs. E. H. Bird, has a supply of books, suitable for children, at very moderate prices, which would make gifts for the Indian schools, and for the Christmas trees on the Columbia, as also would the W. A. calendar, which is now on sale. Mrs. Bird will be at the diocesan library each Monday afternoon, or could be reached by telephone, 2136.

Special intercessions were led by Mrs. Quinlan for Miss Turner and Miss Maclean, who are on their way to Honolulu, and a scripture portion was read by Miss Watt, of the Christ Church Cathedral staff.

YOUNG WOMEN'S SUPPER

The board meeting was preceded by a supper, served in the Guild room, to which fifty young business women sat down at 6:30 p.m. The convener, Mrs. A. Wilson, was assisted by Mrs. Hutchinson and Miss Wollaston, nor should the valuable help rendered so unobtrusively by Mr. Alec Wilson be overlooked.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. Forde, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Wilcox and Miss George Checkley. Mrs. Usher being in charge of the coffee and tea urns. Miss Evelyn Gwynne brought five members of the Business Woman's W. A. of St. Andrew's and Holy Trinity Evening Branch from Sidney, the city branches, including St. Matthias, being well represented. At the close of supper, Miss Taylor, who has lately come from England to assist in work among Orientals, gave her experiences of the call to personal service, and votes of thanks for hospitality were returned by Miss Pennell and Miss Bannerman.

FORTHCOMING EVENTS

Announcement was made of the probable date of the diocesan annual meeting in January, either January 16 or January 23. The next board meeting at St. Barnabas Parish Hall, December 21, will be a morning session only. The Junior Secretary, Mrs. Chow, asked members to patronize the sales of work by the St. Alban's Parish Hall, December 21, will be a morning session only. The Junior Secretary, Mrs. Chow, asked members to patronize the sales of work by the St. Alban's Parish Hall, December 21, will be a morning session only.

Historic Branches of Presbyterianism Will Unite November, 1929

Church of Scotland (Established) and United Free Church Convene This Week to Complete Twenty Years of Negotiations—Spiritual Freedom to Be Enjoyed Under Basis of Union

New Church With 1,300,000 Members Will Preponderate in Scottish Life

A lot of people are still more intimately acquainted with the Presbyterian Church of Scotland (Established) and United Free Church than they are with the new church which is to be formed by the union of the two churches. The new church, which will have 1,300,000 members, will preponderate in Scottish life. The union of the two churches is a historic event in the history of Presbyterianism in Canada. When the four branches of this denomination merged into the Presbyterian Church in Canada, this took place in Montreal fifty-three years ago on June 15, 1875, in Victoria Hall in that city, no church being large enough to accommodate the immense assemblage that gathered.

The Church of Scotland is the established church of that country. The Presbyterian order of faith having been adopted in the year 1567, after Queen Mary's short reign, as "the only true and holy Kirk of Jesus Christ within the realm." The United Free Church of Scotland took place on October 31, 1900, of the Free Church of Scotland and the United Presbyterian Church. The latter was itself the amalgamation of two bodies, the Secession Church and the Relief Church, which were protestants against the invasion of the spiritual rights of the congregations of the Free Church of Scotland, dates from the heart-stirring epoch in Scottish religious life of the attempted invasion by the authorities of the established church, of the liberty of the membership. It culminated in a memorial of protest being laid upon the table of the General Assembly in the presence of the King's commissioners, signed by 470 out of 1,200 ministers, and their departure from the church, and then from the church building to form the first General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland.

PREPARATION FOR UNION Negotiations for union of these two historic bodies have begun by the Church of Scotland, in 1908, twenty years ago. The sentiment for union was stronger on the part of the Church of Scotland, the headquarters of the members of the Free Church centering around the traditional desire for surety of spiritual freedom in the proposed union. They objected to the Church being in any respect under the control of the State. The difficulties were mainly overcome, however, by two Acts of Parliament which prepared the way for the basis of union. Under the first act, that of 1912, the Church of Scotland was given the right to declare the complete independence of the Church, State control in any and every matter spiritual. Under the act of 1925, the churches, manes and the endowments were made over by the State in absolute property to the Church. The changed position into which this brought the established Church won over the large majority of the Free Church members, the small vote of fifty-three only out of a total of 600 being reserved at the assembly in May last against union.

A LARGE CHURCH

The name of the united church will be The Church of Scotland.
